Splunk Enterprise Certified Architect Sample Questions (Q139-Q144):

NEW QUESTION # 139

Which of the following Splunk deployments has the recommended minimum components for a high-availability search head cluster?

- A. 2 search heads, 1 deployer, 3 indexers
- B. 1 search head, 1 deployer, 3 indexers
- C. 3 search heads, 1 deployer, 3 indexers
- D. 2 search heads, 1 deployer, 2 indexers

Answer: C

Explanation:

The correct Splunk deployment to have the recommended minimum components for a high-availability search head cluster is 3 search heads, 1 deployer, 3 indexers. This configuration ensures that the search head cluster has at least three members, which is the minimum number required for a quorum and failover<sup>1</sup>. The deployer is a separate instance that manages the configuration updates for the search head cluster<sup>2</sup>. The indexers are the nodes that store and index the data, and having at least three of them provides redundancy and load balancing<sup>3</sup>. The other options are not recommended, as they either have less than three search heads or less than three indexers, which reduces the availability and reliability of the cluster. Therefore, option B is the correct answer, and options A, C, and D are incorrect.

1: About search head clusters 2: Use the deployer to distribute apps and configuration updates 3: About indexer clusters and index replication

NEW QUESTION # 140

Where does the Splunk deployer send apps by default?

- A. etc/shcluster/<app-name>/default
- B. etc/slave-apps/<app-name>/default
- C. etc/deploy-apps/<app-name>/default
- D. etc/apps/<appname>/default

Answer: A

Explanation:

The Splunk deployer sends apps to the search head cluster members by default to the path etc/shcluster/<app- name>/default. The deployer is a Splunk component that distributes apps and configurations to members of a search head cluster.

Splunk's documentation recommends placing the configuration bundle in the $SPLUNK_HOME/etc/shcluster/apps directory on the deployer, which then gets distributed to the search head cluster members. However, it should be noted that within each app's directory, configurations can be under default or local subdirectories, with local taking precedence over default for configurations. The reference to etc/shcluster/<app-name>/default is not a standard directory structure and might be a misunderstanding. The correct path where the deployer pushes configuration bundles is $SPLUNK_HOME/etc/shcluster/apps

NEW QUESTION # 141

Which Splunk Enterprise offering has its own license?

- A. Splunk Heavy Forwarder
- B. Splunk Universal Forwarder
- C. Splunk Forwarder Management
- D. Splunk Cloud Forwarder

Answer: B

Explanation:

Explanation

The Splunk Universal Forwarder is the only Splunk Enterprise offering that has its own license. The Splunk Universal Forwarder license allows the forwarder to send data to any Splunk Enterprise or Splunk Cloud instance without consuming any license quota. The Splunk Heavy Forwarder does not have its own license, but rather consumes the license quota of the Splunk Enterprise or Splunk Cloud instance that it sends data to.

The Splunk Cloud Forwarder and the Splunk Forwarder Management are not separate Splunk Enterprise offerings, but rather features of the Splunk Cloud service. For more information, see [About forwarder licensing] in the Splunk documentation.

NEW QUESTION # 142

Which index-time props.conf attributes impact indexing performance? (Select all that apply.)

- A. SHOULD_LINEMERGE
- B. LINE_BREAKER
- C. ANNOTATE_PUNCT
- D. REPORT

Answer: A,B

NEW QUESTION # 143

At which default interval does metrics.log generate a periodic report regarding license utilization?

- A. 300 seconds
- B. 10 seconds
- C. 60 seconds
- D. 30 seconds

Answer: C

Explanation:

Explanation

The default interval at which metrics.log generates a periodic report regarding license utilization is 60 seconds.

This report contains information about the license usage and quota for each Splunk instance, as well as the license pool and stack. The report is generated every 60 seconds by default, but this interval can be changed by modifying the license_usage stanza in the metrics.conf file. The other intervals (10 seconds, 30 seconds, and 300 seconds) are not the default values, but they can be set by the administrator if needed. For more information, see About metrics.log and Configure metrics.log in the Splunk documentation.
