Sample Questions (Q10-Q15):

NEW QUESTION # 10

The administrator is reviewing Prism Central Tasks (Menu\Activity\Tasks) and noticed that there are a lot of tasks named:

ADS: Remove Resource Contention

The administrator would like to identify the virtual desktops in the environment that are using the most resources to determine how to fix the resource contention.

Which action should the administrator take to complete this task?

- A. Review Planning scenarios.
- B. Filter the virtual desktops by Constrained: High,
- C. Filter the virtual desktops by Metrics: CPU Usage.
- D. Review the Storage Runway

Answer: B

Explanation:

An action that the administrator should take to identify the virtual desktops in the environment that are using the most resources and causing resource contention is Filter the virtual desktops by Constrained: High.

Constrained is a metric that indicates how often a virtual machine is unable to get its requested CPU resources.

A high value means that the virtual machine is frequently starved for CPU and may experience performance degradation. By filtering the virtual desktops by Constrained: High, the administrator can see which ones are suffering from resource contention and take appropriate actions such as migrating them to less loaded hosts or increasing their CPU allocation.

NEW QUESTION # 11

Which container level storage configuration has the most efficient space savings for full clones?

- A. Deduplication on and Compression on
- B. Deduplication off and Compression off
- C. Deduplication on and Compression off
- D. Deduplication off and Compression on

Answer: A

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation From Exact Extract of Nutanix End User Computing documents:

According to Nutanix Storage Best Practices for Full Clone VDI:

* Full Clone Characteristics: Full Clones are independent copies of the virtual machine, meaning they contain 100% duplicate data (OS, binaries, applications) across every VM in the pool.

* Deduplication Benefit: Because the data is identical across all clones, enabling Deduplication (specifically Capacity Tier Deduplication) provides massive space savings by eliminating these redundant blocks. Nutanix documentation explicitly recommends Deduplication for "Full Clones" and "Persistent Desktops".

* Compression Synergy: Compression (Inline) is recommended for all workloads. Combining Deduplication (to remove duplicate blocks) with Compression (to shrink the unique blocks) yields the "most efficient space savings" possible for this specific workload type.

* Contrast: For Linked Clones (which already share a base disk), Deduplication is turned off (Answer C), but for Full Clones, Answer A is the standard best practice.

NEW QUESTION # 12

A company is using Citrix for virtual desktops on Nutanix with AHV. The studio has 10,000 users who will be connecting to this infrastructure and have deployed a dedicated Files cluster for holding the user home shares.

Since this is a dedicated cluster with dual Intel 6242 28 GHz 16 Core processors and 192GB of RAM, what should be done for the FSVM and CVM configuration to allow for optimal performance?

- A. Leave the CVM vCPUs at 12 and increase the FSVM vCPUs to 8,
- B. Increase the CVM RAM to 64GB and the FSVM RAM to 96GB.
- C. Increase the CVM vCPUs to 16 and the FSVM vCPUs to 12.

- D. Leave the CVM RAM at 32GB and increase the FSVM RAM to 96GB.

Answer: D

Explanation:

<https://portal.nutanix.com/page/documents/solutions/details?targetId=TN-2041-Nutanix-Files:file-server-virtual-machines.html>

<https://next.nutanix.com/files-storage-71/command-line-access-to-nutanix-file-server-vm-fsvm-via-ssh-nutanix-files-33420> The file server VM (FSVM) is a virtual machine that runs on Nutanix Files and provides file services such as SMB shares and NFS exports. The FSVM is based on CentOS and incorporates all the security and hardening that goes into the Nutanix Controller VM (CVM)². The CVM is a virtual machine that runs on each node of a Nutanix cluster and provides storage management, data protection, cluster coordination, and other services³.

The FSVMs have some default configuration settings that can be changed depending on your workload requirements. For example, you can change the number of vCPUs, RAM, network interfaces, or disk size of an FSVM². However, you should not change these settings without consulting Nutanix Support first.

One of the factors that affects the performance of an FSVM is its memory allocation. The more memory an FSVM has, the more cache it can use for file operations. This can improve the throughput and latency of file serving workloads⁴. Therefore, increasing the FSVM RAM to 96GB can help optimize its performance for a large number of users.

NEW QUESTION # 13

An administrator attempts to create a Machine Catalog for Windows 11 desktops in Citrix utilizing Machine Creation Services (MCS), but the desktops fail to register on startup.

What could be preventing registration?

- A. Time is off on the machines.
- B. Insufficient CPU/Memory allocated to machines.
- C. Invalid characters in Machine name.
- D. No RDS Licenses are available.

Answer: A

Explanation:

For a Citrix VDA (Virtual Delivery Agent) to successfully register with the Delivery Controller, it must establish a secure communication channel which relies heavily on Kerberos authentication.

A common cause for registration failure on startup, particularly in new deployments or non-persistent environments, is that the Time is off on the machines. If the system clock of the virtual desktop drifts more than 5 minutes from the domain controller or the Delivery Controller, Kerberos ticket generation fails. This prevents the VDA from authenticating with the Broker Service, resulting in a "Unregistered" state in Citrix Studio. While Windows 11 has strict hardware requirements (Option A), failing to meet those usually prevents the OS from booting or installing entirely; if the OS boots but fails to register, time synchronization is the most probable infrastructure cause.

NEW QUESTION # 14

An administrator is in charge of an EUC environment consisting of a Nutanix cluster and an Ommissa Horizon desktop environment. During routine LCM maintenance on the Nutanix cluster, the administrator notices that the desktop pool provisioning is in an error state and new instance clones are not being created.

What are two causes of this issue? (Choose two.)

- A. Pool provisioning was not disabled prior to maintenance starting.
- B. The host having maintenance performed contains the replica VMs.
- C. The cluster is experiencing high CPU/memory load, causing provisioning issues.
- D. LCM didn't inventory the environment successfully before starting maintenance.

Answer: A,B

Explanation:

When performing maintenance (such as Life Cycle Manager updates) on a Nutanix cluster hosting Ommissa (VMware) Horizon Instant Clones, specific operational steps are required to avoid provisioning failures.

* Pool provisioning was not disabled (Option D): It is a mandatory best practice to disable provisioning in the Horizon Connection Server before starting cluster maintenance. If provisioning remains active, the broker attempts to create VMs on hosts that may be rebooting or entering maintenance mode, leading to error states.

* The host having maintenance performed contains the replica VMs (Option C): Instant Clones rely on a "Replica" VM (a powered-on parent VM) typically residing on one of the hosts. If the host holding this Replica VM enters maintenance mode without the broker's awareness or without proper evacuation handling, the "Link" required to generate new clones is broken, causing provisioning tasks to fail immediately.
