NEW QUESTION # 61

Your customer has the requirement that employees with low performance ratings have a different text in their statement than those with high performance ratings.

How can you accomplish this?

- A. Use the suppress statement function.
- B. Create multiple statement templates use groups.
- C. Use two compensation worksheet templates.
- D. Use conditional text sections in the statement editor.

Answer: D

Explanation:

In SAP SuccessFactors Compensation, you can use conditional text sections to display different content based on performance ratings or other criteria.

* Using Conditional Text Sections

* Option C: Conditional text sections allow the statement editor to show specific text for employees based on defined conditions, such as performance ratings. This way, employees with low ratings can see one version of text, while those with high ratings see another.

* Why Other Options Are Incorrect

* Option A (multiple templates) is more complex and unnecessary when conditional text is sufficient.

* Option B (two worksheet templates) adds administrative complexity.

* Option D (suppress statement function) is used to hide statements, not to vary the content based on conditions.

* Reference Documentation
