NEW QUESTION # 104

Which of the following statements about an agile approach to projects is true?

Deploying the Solution incrementally throughout the project to validate the solution.
Early release of Solution Increments helps test assumptions about value.

- A. Both 1 and 2 are true
- B. Only 1 is true
- C. Only 2 is true
- D. Neither 1 or 2 is true

Answer: A

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation (verified, paraphrased from AgilePM principles):

AgilePM promotes incremental and iterative delivery, aiming to deploy usable increments early and often. Regular deployment and demonstration validate fitness for purpose, expose risks sooner, and provide empirical feedback for planning. Early release of increments also tests assumptions about value with real users and stakeholders, informing prioritization (e.g., MoSCoW) and shaping subsequent increments. This approach supports continuous learning, sharper benefits focus, and stronger financial governance, because funding and scope decisions can be based on evidence from working solution slices rather than predictions. Hence, both statements accurately reflect agile project delivery.

NEW QUESTION # 105

When initially creating MoSCoW priorities, what is the primary focus?

- A. Timebox priorities
- B. Project increment priorities
- C. Project priorities
- D. Iterative Development priorities

Answer: A

Explanation:

When initially creating MoSCoW priorities in AgilePM, the primary focus is on Timebox priorities. This approach ensures that each Timebox (a fixed period during which specific tasks must be completed) has clear and prioritized objectives. The MoSCoW method (Must have, Should have, Could have, Won't have this time) helps the team to deliver the most critical features within the given timeframe, thereby optimizing the value delivered in each iteration. This prioritization ensures that essential functionalities are completed first, making the project adaptable and resilient to changes.
