Which two statements about SRX Series device chassis clusters are true? (Choose two.)

- A. Chassis cluster member devices must be the same model.
- B. Each chassis cluster member requires a unique cluster ID value.
- C. Each chassis cluster member device can host active redundancy groups
- D. Redundancy group 0 is only active on the cluster backup node.

Answer: A,C

Explanation:

In a chassis cluster, both nodes can host active redundancy groups. The active redundancy groups can be distributed between the two nodes, depending on the configuration and failover status, allowing each node to handle traffic for different sets of services or interfaces.

For the chassis clustering to function correctly, both nodes in the cluster must be of the same model.

This requirement ensures that the hardware capabilities, such as processing power and interface compatibility, are identical, which is crucial for maintaining consistent performance and behavior between cluster nodes.
