2. Were clear and adequate criteria used to include and exclude studies from analysis? - answer I.e. did the authors decide to include or exclude studies conducted without blinding?

3. Were individual studies rated independently? - answer Did multiple ind. raters conduct the evaluation of ind. studies?

4. Were individual studies rated with blinding? - answer Was evaluation blinded (ie conceal author, publication date)?

5. Was inter rater agreement adequate? - answer degree of agreement among raters

6-10 - answer specific to the quantitative analysis of outcomes in a meta-analysis:

9. Did a forest plot suggest reasonable homogeneity of findings across ind. studies?
10. If not, was a heterogeneity or moderate analysis conducted?

If systematic review, 6-10 are N/A

If confidence interval around mean effect size is very large or there is extensive variability - answer outcome of meta-analysis will be of limited utility

11. Were the results sufficiently relevant to my patient and practice? - answer
Regardless of how strong the external evidence from a meta-analysis or systematic review may be, it must still be integrated with evidence concerning the characteristics and preferences of a particular patient before a decision about changing current clinical practice is made

B . Incorrect. Accountability is important, but the Agile Service Manager prioritizes serving others.

C . Correct. As a Servant Leader, the Agile Service Manager removes impediments, supports the team's autonomy, and ensures alignment with Agile values.

NEW QUESTION # 41

What is a value stream?

- A. Enables the ability to do something when and how it is needed or desired
- B. A set of activities that flow from the start of development to software deployment
- C. All the activities from a customer request to a delivered product or service
- D. The importance, worth, or usefulness of an IT service

Answer: C

Explanation:

A value stream is a series of steps or activities that an organization undertakes to deliver value to a customer, starting from the initial request to the final delivery of a product or service. It represents the end-to-end flow of value and includes all tasks necessary for the creation and delivery of the product or service, regardless of whether they are performed by development teams, operations, or other departments.

Option Analysis:

- A . Incorrect. While agility involves doing something as and when needed, this doesn't define a value stream.
- B . Partially correct but too narrow. A value stream encompasses more than just development and deployment; it includes all activities related to delivering customer value.
- C . Correct. This encapsulates the end-to-end activities from customer request to delivery, which aligns with the value stream concept in Lean and Agile practices.
- D . Incorrect. This defines "value" in IT services, not the concept of a value stream.
