NEW QUESTION # 33

When should the Business Continuity Planning be reviewed?

- A. Whenever the company gets audited
- B. Whenever encountering a disaster
- C. Whenever the legal department declares it is time
- D. At least annually or whenever significant changes occur

Answer: D

Explanation:

Explanation

Business continuity planning is not a one-time activity, but a dynamic and ongoing process that needs to be reviewed and updated regularly to reflect changes in the internal and external environment. The frequency of review may vary depending on the nature and size of the organization, but it is generally recommended to conduct a review at least annually or whenever significant changes occur that may affect the continuity of the organization's functions and processes. Such changes may include organizational restructuring, new products or services, new technologies, new regulations, new threats or vulnerabilities, or lessons learned from incidents or exercises. NEW QUESTION # 34

Which statement is authorized at an appropriate level and should codify the company's attitude to a particular risk?

- A. Privacy Statement
- B. Policy Statement
- C. Process Document
- D. QMS Document

Answer: B

Explanation:

A policy statement is a statement that is authorized at an appropriate level and should codify the company's attitude to a particular risk. A policy statement is a document that defines the scope, objectives, principles, roles, and responsibilities of a business continuity management program. It should also express the organization's commitment to managing risks and ensuring continuity of its critical functions and processes.

A policy statement should be approved by senior management and communicated to all relevant stakeholders.
