GAQM Certified Business Continuity Professional (CBCP) Sample Questions (Q22-Q27):

NEW QUESTION # 22

Tolerating risk is where no action is taken to mitigate or reduce a risk.

- A. True
- B. False

Answer: A

Explanation:

Explanation

Tolerating risk is where no action is taken to mitigate or reduce a risk. This is true because tolerating risk is one of the possible strategies for managing risk. Tolerating risk means accepting or retaining a risk without taking any further action to reduce it, either because the risk level is acceptable or because the cost or effort of reducing it is not justified. Tolerating risk may be appropriate for low-priority or low-impact risks that do not pose a significant threat to the organization's objectives. Verified References:

NEW QUESTION # 23

BIA stands for

- A. Business Improvement Activities
- B. Business Importance and Availability
- C. Business Impact Analysis
- D. Business Information Availability

Answer: C

Explanation:

Explanation

Business impact analysis (BIA) is the process of identifying and prioritizing the organization's functions and processes based on their importance to the organization's objectives, and assessing the potential impacts of a disruption to those functions and processes over time. The BIA helps to determine the recovery time objectives (RTOs), recovery point objectives (RPOs), and resource requirements for each function and process, as well as the interdependencies and dependencies among them. The BIA provides the basis for developing recovery strategies and plans. Verified References:

NEW QUESTION # 24

In pre-crisis management, CM activities are focused on prevention and preparedness activities.

- A. True
- B. False

Answer: A

Explanation:

Explanation

In pre-crisis management, CM activities are focused on prevention and preparedness activities. This is true because pre-crisis management is the phase before a crisis occurs, where the organization tries to anticipate and avoid potential crises or reduce their likelihood and impact. Pre-crisis management involves activities such as risk assessment, business impact analysis, business continuity planning, contingency planning, crisis communication planning, training and awareness, testing and exercising, monitoring and reviewing.
