Medical Professional Certified Case Manager Certification Exam (CCM) Sample Questions (Q89-Q94):

NEW QUESTION # 89

The FIDIC Red Book (edition 1999) deals with Value Engineering Clause. It follows from this clause that the Contractor shall give notice to the Engineer with supporting particulars. Upon receiving this notice, the Engineer shall proceed in accordance with Sub-Clause 3.5 to agree or determine this Cost, which shall be included in the Contract Price.

- A. False
- B. True

Answer: B

Explanation:

Under FIDIC Red Book (1999), the Value Engineering Clause requires the Contractor to notify the Engineer with full details and cost implications when proposing Value Engineering changes. The Engineer then follows the Variation procedure in Sub-Clause 3.5 to agree or determine the cost adjustment, which will be reflected in the Contract Price.

This ensures transparent handling of Value Engineering proposals and proper contractual adjustments.

NEW QUESTION # 90

Under the FIDIC Silver Contract (edition 2017), which two of the answers provide for preconditions for certification and payment of the Interim Payment Certificate?

Choose all of the correct answers (multiple possibilities).

- A. Receipt of a statement via a letter showing the amounts to which the Contractor considers itself to be entitled.
- B. The appointment of the Contractor's Representative and receipt of the Performance Security, by the Employer, in the form, and issued by an entity, in accordance with Sub-Clause 4.2.1.
- C. Receipt of a statement and supporting documents.
- D. The appointment of the Contractor and receipt of the Advance Payment Guarantee, by the Employer, in the form, and issued by an entity, in accordance with Sub-Clause 14.2.1.

Answer: C,D

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation:

Option A is correct: Certification and payment of interim payments are conditional on Employer's receipt of the Contractor's appointment and the Advance Payment Guarantee (Sub-Clause 14.2.1).

Option D is correct: Payment also requires receipt of the Contractor's statement supported by relevant documentation.

Option B alone is insufficient without supporting documents.

Option C relates to appointment and performance security but is not a stated precondition for payment certification.

NEW QUESTION # 91

Which of the following statements are relevant to continuing effect claims? [FIDIC 2017 Edition] (2 correct answers apply)

- A. In case the Employer is the Claiming Party, then he/she is not obliged to submit interim claims.
- B. Continuing effect claims shall be noticed in the same way as "normal" claims, within 28 days after the Claiming Party became aware of the event or circumstance.
- C. In case the Contractor is the Claiming Party, when he/she misses to submit even just a single interim claim, then his/her entitlement is lost.
- D. In general, a fully detailed Claim has to be submitted within 84 days after becoming aware of the event giving rise to the claim.

Answer: B,D

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation:

Option A is correct: Continuing effect claims (claims where the event's impact continues over time) require notices like other claims, typically within 28 days of awareness.

Option D is correct: The fully detailed claim submission generally must be within 84 days of becoming aware of the event, allowing the Claiming Party to elaborate on the claim.

Option B is incorrect; Employer claims also require timely notification.

Option C is incorrect; missing a single interim claim does not necessarily result in losing entitlement if the contract allows for correction or continued claims.

NEW QUESTION # 92

You are the Contract Manager of the Employer's Representative in a Thermal Power Plant Project. The Contract for this project is EPC Turnkey Contract using the FIDIC Silver Book (edition 2017) with a Contract Price of 28 million USD. The Employer's Requirements require that: "the Contractor design in accordance with international and national technical regulations, and standards, [etc.]".

For piling works, the Employer's Requirements state that the Contractor will design according to a specific national standard for piling works NTS-PW-01. After all piles for the jetty have been installed, a pile load test on lateral bearing capacity shows that actual lateral bearing capacity is much lower than the calculated lateral bearing capacity. It was later revealed by the Technical Standard Committee that there was a typo mistake during preparation of the NTS-PW-01 (translated from a foreign standard). The lateral bearing capacity of installed piles had been substantially overestimated as a result of this typo. Contractor submits a claim for 200,000 USD regarding extra costs for installing additional piles as a result of errors in the Employer's Requirements.

In the hydrological information of Site Data provided by the Employer, the annual high water level is 4.0m.

However, during the design stage, with updated data from local stations along the rivers, the Contractor found out there was a mistake in the calculation. The annual high water level should be 4.5m. As a result, the Contractor has to design and build additional flood walls along the river to protect the Plant from flooding.

The Contractor claims an amount of 300,000 USD to construct the flood wall, based on Unforeseeable difficulties.

As the Employer's Representative, after you have consulted with both Parties but failed to reach agreement, you will make a fair determination of the Claims of the Contractor.

In your "Notice of the Employer's Representative's determination", what is your determination for the Contractor?

- A. The Contractor is entitled to both Claims.
- B. The Contractor is entitled to the Claim for additional costs in relation to the piling, based on errors in the Employer's Requirement only.
- C. The Contractor is not entitled to either of the Claims.
- D. The Contractor is entitled to the Claim for the additional flood wall based on Unforeseeable difficulties only.

Answer: A

Explanation:

Both claims are valid under the Silver Book principles:

The error in the Employer's Requirements (typo in NTS-PW-01) leads to entitlement for additional piling costs.

The unforeseen hydrological data causing additional flood protection works qualify as unforeseeable physical conditions entitling the Contractor to compensation.

Hence, Option D is correct - the Contractor is entitled to both claims.

NEW QUESTION # 93

Under the FIDIC Red, Yellow, and Silver Books (edition 2017), if a Dispute is referred to the Dispute Avoidance and Adjudication Board (DAAB) to obtain its decision, the Parties shall suspend performing their obligations in accordance with the Contract, until they receive further directions from the DAAB. Is this statement true or false?

- A. False
- B. True

Answer: A

Explanation:

The statement is false. Under FIDIC 2017 editions, the referral of a dispute to the DAAB does not automatically suspend the Parties' contractual obligations. The works and contract performance generally continue while the dispute is adjudicated, unless otherwise agreed or ordered.

Suspension of obligations can disrupt project progress and is not encouraged by FIDIC procedures, which emphasize dispute resolution without delaying the work.
