CCE Global Counselor Preparation Comprehensive Examination (CPCE) Sample Questions (Q21-Q26):

NEW QUESTION # 21

What research term refers to the degree to which a study can establish a causal relationship between the independent and dependent variables, while ruling out alternative explanations for the study results?

- A. internal validity
- B. interrater reliability
- C. internal consistency

Answer: A

Explanation:

Internal validity is the extent to which a study can demonstrate a causal relationship between variables and rule out other possible explanations for the observed outcomes. High internal validity means the changes in the dependent variable are due to manipulation of the independent variable.

NEW QUESTION # 22

What makes considering linguistics crucial for avoiding test bias across groups?

- A. Linguistics assess appropriateness across intelligence levels.
- B. Clear language is necessary to reduce confusion during test-taking.
- C. Language needs to be translated appropriately for cultural relevance.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Appropriate translation and adaptation of language in tests is critical to avoid bias and ensure cultural relevance. Language needs to be translated appropriately for cultural relevance so that items are not misunderstood or culturally inappropriate, which could invalidate results and disadvantage test-takers from different backgrounds.

NEW QUESTION # 23

What therapeutic factor is most essential for promoting emotional safety and self-disclosure among group members?

- A. structured meeting days and times
- B. feedback from the leader and group
- C. cohesion and mutual trust

Answer: C

Explanation:

Cohesion and mutual trust are the most essential therapeutic factors for fostering emotional safety and encouraging self-disclosure in group settings. When group members feel connected and trust one another, they are much more likely to open up and share sensitive information. "Cohesiveness and mutual trust create the climate necessary for risk-taking and honest self-exploration in group counseling." Reference: Helwig, A. A. (2020). CPCE Study Guide and Review; Corey, G. (2016). Theory and Practice of Group Counseling (9th Edition).

NEW QUESTION # 24

Much of the early career development research was focused on

- A. unemployed adults.
- B. blue-collar workers.
- C. White males.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Early career development theories and research predominantly focused on White males, largely due to historical and social circumstances. This narrow focus often neglected the experiences of women and individuals from diverse racial, cultural, and socioeconomic backgrounds. Current theories aim to be more inclusive and representative.

NEW QUESTION # 25

Clients are advised of the risks and benefits of participation in a research study through a process known as

- A. treatment contracting.
- B. informed consent.
- C. debriefing disclosure.

Answer: B

Explanation:

Informed consent is the ethical process by which researchers inform potential participants about the risks, benefits, procedures, and purpose of a research study. It ensures that participation is voluntary and based on a clear understanding of what the study entails. According to CPCE materials, "participants must be given sufficient information to make an informed, voluntary decision about participating in research." Reference: Helwig, A. A. (2020). CPCE Study Guide and Review; American Counseling Association (ACA) Code of Ethics.
