ACFE Certified Fraud Examiner - Fraud Prevention and Deterrence Exam Sample Questions (Q136-Q141):

NEW QUESTION # 136

Which of the following statements Is TRUE regarding how fraud examiners should exercise professional skepticism during a fraud examination engagement?

- A. Professional skepticism can be dispelled only by evidence
- B. Fraud examiners should form the engagement hypothesis without regard to the nature of the assignment
- C. Fraud examiners should not relax their skeptical attitudes under any circumstances.
- D. Professional skepticism involves maintaining a mindset that no fraud has occurred

Answer: A

Explanation:

Definition of Professional Skepticism:

* Professional skepticism requires maintaining a questioning mindset and critically assessing evidence throughout the fraud examination process.

Why D is Correct:

* Professional skepticism ensures that fraud examiners remain vigilant and rely on evidence to conclude whether fraud has occurred or not. It is dispelled only when sufficient evidence supports a clear conclusion.

Why Other Options are Incorrect:

- * A: While skepticism is critical, it does not mean refusing to acknowledge credible evidence.
- * B: Assuming no fraud occurred contradicts the principle of skepticism.
- * C: Hypotheses should consider the nature of the assignment and available information.

NEW QUESTION # 137

Which of the following is TRUE regarding the communication of the fraud risk assessment process?

- A. The communication should be visibly disseminated throughout the business
- B. The communication should be made in a format that is most appropriate for the culture of the organization
- C. The more personalized the communication, the more effective it will be in encouraging employees to participate
- D. All of the above

Answer: D

Explanation:

Communication of Fraud Risk Assessment Process: Effective communication ensures that employees understand the objectives and importance of the fraud risk assessment process. The following practices contribute to its success:

A: Personalization: Personalized communication increases engagement by making the information relevant to employees' roles and responsibilities.

B: Appropriateness to Culture: Aligning the communication format with the organization's culture ensures clarity and resonance.

C: Visibility: Disseminating communication broadly reinforces its significance and encourages widespread participation.

Why All Options are Correct:

Fraud risk assessments require buy-in and participation across all levels of the organization. Combining personalization, cultural alignment, and visibility creates an effective communication strategy.

Conclusion: All three practices—personalization, cultural appropriateness, and visibility—are critical for effective communication.
