- A. Yes, as all the items supplied are off the shelf
- B. No, as there is often a supply risk with items offered
- C. Yes, as the items are of high financial risk

NEW QUESTION # 161

A garden centre has recently purchased some lollypop sticks to use as plant labels. The staff have written the name of the plant on the lollypop stick and put it next to the plant. This helps them identify which plant is which. However, after a couple of weeks, the lollypop sticks have become mouldy and the writing has faded.

Staff are now struggling to identify their plants. The Manager of the garden centre is considering returning the lollypop sticks and asking for a full refund as they were not fit for purpose. Can the Manager do this?

- A. Yes- the lollypop sticks have gone mouldy- this is unacceptable
- B. No- the manager cannot prove that the product is faulty
- C. Yes- so long as the manager kept the receipt
- D. No- as this was not the lollypop sticks intended purpose

Answer: D

Explanation:

The correct answer is 'no- as this was not the lollypop sticks intended purpose'. When deciding if something is fit for purpose, you must consider its intended and common purpose. In this case it would be for making lollypops. As the garden centre is using them for something other than their intended purpose, they can't complain if it doesn't work. Fit for purpose is discussed on p.65 p.s. there's a question like this in the real exam - it's just not lollypop sticks ;)

Answer: A,C,D

Explanation:

You would expect a supplier to submit full pricing information, risk assessments and method statements.
