Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 710

For an enterprise implementing a bring your own device (BYOD) program, which of the following would provide the BEST security of corporate data residing on unsecured mobile devices?

- A. Data loss prevention (DLP)
- B. Device certification process
- C. Containerization solution
- D. Acceptable use policy

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 711

Which of the following is the BEST justification to convince management to invest in an information security program?

- A. Protection of business assets
- B. Cost reduction
- C. Increased business value
- D. Compliance with company policies

Answer: C

Explanation:

Investing in an information security program should increase business value and confidence. Cost reduction by itself is rarely the motivator for implementing an information security program. Compliance is secondary to business value. Increasing business value may include protection of business assets.
