NEW QUESTION # 61

Every time a user loads a specific spreadsheet, their computer is temporarily unresponsive. The user also notices that the title bar indicates the application is not responding. Which of the following would a technician most likely inspect?

- A. File size and related memory utilization
- B. Anti-malware logs
- C. Workstation repair options
- D. Bandwidth status as reported in the Task Manager

Answer: A

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation From Exact Extract:

If a system becomes unresponsive while opening a specific spreadsheet, the issue is likely tied to the file's size or the complexity of its content (e.g., embedded formulas, macros, or graphics). High memory utilization caused by the file can lead to temporary freezing or application "Not Responding" messages. Checking the spreadsheet's file size and monitoring system memory in Task Manager will help isolate performance bottlenecks.

A: Anti-malware logs are important for security troubleshooting but less likely relevant to spreadsheet-related performance issues.

B: Workstation repair is for system-wide problems and not necessary for a single-file issue.

C: Bandwidth relates to network usage and wouldn't impact opening a local file.
