- B. The Apex governor limits cannot be exceeded due to the asynchronous nature of the transaction.

- D. The Apex governor limits are omitted while calling the constructor of the Apex class.

Answer: A,C

Explanation:

Option A: The Apex governor limits are reset for each iteration of the `execute()` method.

True.

Even though asynchronous Apex has higher limits, governor limits can still be exceeded, leading to exceptions.

Governor limits apply to all Apex code, including constructors.

There are no exceptions for constructors.
