ISQI ISTQB Certified Tester Foundation Level (CTFL) v4.0 Sample Questions (Q18-Q23):

NEW QUESTION # 18

Which ONE of the following activities TYPICALLY belongs to the planning phase of the review process?

- A. Each reviewer conducts an individual review to identify anomalies, recommendations, and questions.
- B. The purpose and scope of the review are defined, as well as the work product to be reviewed and the exit criteria.
- C. A separate defect report is created for each identified defect so that corrective actions can be tracked.
- D. The reviewers analyze and discuss the anomalies found during the review in a joint meeting.

Answer: B

Explanation:

The planning phase of the review process (C) includes defining the review's purpose, scope, and exit criteria to ensure alignment. Option A is part of the defect management phase, B happens during individual preparation, and D takes place in the review meeting.

NEW QUESTION # 19

A company wants to reward each of its salespeople with an annual bonus that represents the sum of all the bonuses accumulated for every single sale made by that salesperson. The bonus for a single sale can take on the following four values: 3%, 5%, 7% and 10% (the percentage refers to the amount of the single sale). These values are determined on the basis of the type of customer (classified as "Basic" or "Premium") to which such sale was made, and on the amount of such sale classified into the following three groups G1, G2 and G3:

* [G1]: less than 300 euros

* [G2]: between 300 and 2000 euros

* [G3]: greater than 2000 euros

Which of the following is the minimum number of test cases needed to cover the full decision table associated with this scenario?

- A. 0
- B. 1
- C. 2
- D. 3

Answer: B

Explanation:

The minimum number of test cases needed to cover the full decision table associated with this scenario is 6.

This is because the decision table has 4 conditions (type of customer and amount of sale) and 4 actions (bonus percentage). The conditions have 2 possible values each (Basic or Premium, and G1, G2 or G3), so the total number of combinations is  $2 \times 2 \times 2 \times 2 = 16$ . However, not all combinations are valid, as some of them are contradictory or impossible. For example, a sale cannot be both less than 300 euros and greater than 2000 euros at the same time. Therefore, we need to eliminate the invalid combinations and keep only the valid ones.

The valid combinations are:

Type of customer

Amount of sale

Bonus percentage

Basic

G1

3%

Basic

G2

5%

Basic

G3

7%

Premium

G1

5%

Premium

G2

7%

Premium

G3

10%

These 6 combinations cover all the possible values of the conditions and actions, and they are the minimum number of test cases needed to cover the full decision table.

NEW QUESTION # 20

Which of the following applications will be the MOST suitable for testing by Use Cases

- A. The ability of an Anti virus package to detect and quarantine a new threat
- B. Accuracy and usability of a new Navigation system compared with previous system
- C. A billing system used to calculate monthly charge based on large number of subscribers parameters
- D. Suitability and performance of a Multi media (audio video based) system to a new operating system

Answer: B

Explanation:

A new navigation system compared with a previous system is the most suitable application for testing by use cases, because it involves a high level of interaction between the user and the system, and the expected behavior and outcomes of the system are based on the user's needs and goals. Use cases can help to specify the functional requirements of the new navigation system, such as the ability to enter a destination, select a route, follow the directions, receive alerts, etc. Use cases can also help to compare the accuracy and usability of the new system with the previous system, by defining the success and failure scenarios, the preconditions and postconditions, and the alternative flows of each use case. Use cases can also help to design and execute test cases that cover the main and exceptional paths of each use case, and to verify the satisfaction of the user's expectations.

The other options are not the most suitable applications for testing by use cases, because they do not involve a high level of interaction between the user and the system, or the expected behavior and outcomes of the system are not based on the user's needs and goals. A billing system used to calculate monthly charge based on a large number of subscriber parameters is more suitable for testing by data-driven testing, which is a technique for testing the functionality and performance of a system or component by using a large set of input and output data. The ability of an antivirus package to detect and quarantine a new threat is more suitable for testing by exploratory testing, which is a technique for testing the functionality and security of a system or component by using an informal and flexible approach, based on the tester's experience and intuition. The suitability and performance of a multimedia (audio video based) system to a new operating system is more suitable for testing by compatibility testing, which is a technique for testing the functionality and performance of a system or component by using different hardware, software, or network environments.

NEW QUESTION # 21

Your organization's test strategy states that it is desirable to use more than one method for estimating test effort. You are responsible for estimating test effort for the next project. Based on historical data, the development-to-test effort ratio is 5:3.

The initial estimate for the development effort is 450 person-days.

Which ONE of the following options corresponds to the estimated test effort using the ratio-based method?

- A. 750 person-days
- B. 180 person-days
- C. 720 person-days
- D. 270 person-days

Answer: D

Explanation:

The ratio-based estimation method relies on historical relationships between development and testing effort.

Using the given 5:3 ratio:

$$\text{Test Effort} = \left( \frac{3}{5} \times \text{Development Effort} \right) = \left( \frac{3}{5} \times 450 \right) = 270 \text{ person-days}$$

Thus, the correct answer is 270 person-days (D).

* (A) and (C) are incorrect as they overestimate the effort.

* (B) underestimates the testing effort based on the ratio.

Ratio-based estimation helps allocate resources effectively based on past project data.

NEW QUESTION # 22

Which ONE of the following elements is TYPICALLY NOT part of a test progress report?

- A. Obstacles and their workarounds
- B. A detailed assessment of product quality
- C. Test metrics to show the current status of the test process
- D. New or changed risks

Answer: B

Explanation:

A test progress report provides an overview of testing activities, metrics, and identified risks. It focuses on tracking testing progress rather than evaluating overall product quality (B), which is typically included in a test summary report after testing is completed.

* (A) is correct because obstacles (challenges) are reported to ensure test execution stays on track.

* (C) is correct as test metrics help stakeholders track execution progress.

* (D) is correct because new or changed risks impact test focus and priorities.

A test progress report tracks execution and informs stakeholders about ongoing testing activities.
