最新的 Certified Internal IIA-CIA-Part1 免費考試真題 (Q519-Q524):

問題 #519

Which of the following is not an appropriate type of coordination between the internal audit activity and regulatory auditors?

- A. Regulatory and internal auditors exchange information about planned activities.
- B. Regulatory auditors share their perspective on risk management, control, and governance with the internal auditors.
- C. Internal auditors perform fieldwork at the direction of the regulatory auditors.
- D. Internal auditors review copies of regulatory reports in planning related internal engagements.

答案: C

問題 #520

Of all the common characteristics of frauds, which of the following can the organization influence the most?

- A. Rationalization
- B. Opportunity
- C. Pressure or incentive.
- D. Commitment.

答案: B

解題說明:

In the context of fraud risk management, organizations have the most influence over "Opportunity," which is one of the elements of the fraud triangle (Pressure, Opportunity, Rationalization). Reducing opportunity can be achieved through internal controls, segregation of duties, and active oversight, which are directly manageable by the organization. By limiting the chances for fraud to occur, an organization can significantly mitigate its fraud risk.

Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA) guidance on fraud risk management.

問題 #521

Which of the following is the most effective way for internal auditors to determine whether ethical values are followed throughout the organization?

- A. Review the organization's ethical value structure and reporting procedures.
- B. Review employee survey responses and follow up on those that suggest weaknesses in the ethical climate.
- C. Review what the organization considers to be ethical behavior, such as the employee code of conduct.
- D. Review the organization's records to ensure all employees have signed statements that they will follow ethical practices.

答案: B

解題說明:

To effectively determine whether ethical values are followed throughout an organization, internal auditors should review employee survey responses and follow up on those that suggest weaknesses in the ethical climate. This approach allows auditors to gather firsthand insights from employees about the actual ethical environment, which can be more telling than formal documentation or compliance with written policies alone.

It provides a direct measure of the ethical culture as experienced and perceived by the employees themselves.
