Medical Professional Certified Case Manager Certification Exam (CCM)

Sample Questions (Q130-Q135):

NEW QUESTION # 130

What does discharge confirm under the FIDIC Red Book (edition 1999)?

- A. It confirms full and final settlement of all money due to the Contractor.
- B. None of the above three statements is correct.
- C. It confirms interim settlement of all money due to the Contractor
- D. It confirms the immediate end to the Contract unconditionally whenever issued.

Answer: A

Explanation:

Discharge under FIDIC Red Book 1999 confirms full and final settlement of all money due to the Contractor.

It signifies the Contractor's acceptance of the Final Payment Certificate and releases the Employer from further financial obligations related to the contract.

Options A and C misrepresent the nature of discharge.

Discharge is not a unilateral immediate termination but a financial closure.

NEW QUESTION # 131

(Which two of the following items are new features introduced in FIDIC Red and Yellow Books (edition 2017) in respect to the procedures relating to the Programme?

Choose all of the correct answers (multiple possibilities).)

- A. Specifying the programming software that shall be used by the Contractor in preparation of the Programme.
- B. The requirement to submit a revised programme by the Contractor whenever the previous programme is inconsistent with actual progress.
- C. The requirement that any revised programmes to be submitted by the Contractor is to reflect accurately the actual progress of the works.
- D. Submission by the Contractor of a detailed time Programme to the Engineer within 28 days after receiving the notice under Sub-Clause 8.1.

Answer: B,C

Explanation:

Under FIDIC 2017, Clause 8.3 [Programme] was significantly enhanced compared to the 1999 editions, introducing more detailed and stricter requirements for programme management and updating.

Option A is correct. The 2017 editions explicitly require the Contractor to revise and resubmit the Programme whenever it becomes inconsistent with actual progress. This strengthens proactive project control and ensures that the Programme remains a live and reliable management tool.

Option C is also correct. FIDIC 2017 emphasizes that revised programmes must accurately reflect actual progress and current circumstances, including sequencing, logic, and resources. This aligns with the broader 2017 philosophy of improved transparency and contract administration.

Option B is incorrect because FIDIC does not mandate specifying particular programming software; this remains at the Contractor's discretion unless otherwise stated in Particular Conditions.

Option D is incorrect because submission of a programme within 28 days already existed in FIDIC 1999 (Sub- Clause 8.3), and therefore is not a "new" feature.

These enhancements reflect FIDIC 2017's focus on active project management, early warning, and accurate planning, making the Programme a central tool for monitoring and controlling project performance.

NEW QUESTION # 132

When is the Employer obliged to return the Performance Security (PS) under the FIDIC Red Book (edition 1999)?

- A. Within 21 days after the issuance of the Taking-Over Certificate.
- B. Without undue delay after the issuance of the Taking-Over Certificate.

- C. Without undue delay after the issuance of the Performance Certificate.
- D. Within 21 days after the issuance of the Performance Certificate.

Answer: D

Explanation:

Under FIDIC Red Book 1999, the Performance Security (or Performance Guarantee) is held to ensure the Contractor's performance during the defects liability period. The security is typically released only after the Employer issues the Performance Certificate, which confirms the completion of defects liability obligations and that the Contractor has fulfilled the contract.

The contract commonly specifies a fixed period (often 21 days) within which the Employer must return the Performance Security after issuance of the Performance Certificate (Option D). The Taking-Over Certificate (Options A and C) marks substantial completion but does not end the Contractor's obligations for defects.

NEW QUESTION # 133

(You are the Contract Manager in a contract using the FIDIC Red Book with a Dispute Avoidance and Adjudication Board. The DAAB is already appointed (standing DAAB). You are coaching your team on the steps to be followed to request for informal assistance from the DAAB during a Site visit. Which one of the following does NOT belong to those steps?)

- A. The Employer and the Contractor have made a "joint request" in writing before the DAAB gives the requested assistance.
- B. The Employer and the Contractor have identified an issue and disagreement, and have agreed between themselves that they want the DAAB to provide assistance and/or informally discuss and attempt to resolve that issue/disagreement.
- C. Both Parties should be present at the meeting in which the DAAB provides assistance.
- D. The Engineer has made a non-objection letter, in which it is stated that the issue/disagreement does not concern the matter that is being dealt with by the Engineer.

Answer: D

Explanation:

Under FIDIC Red Book 2017, Clause 21 (Dispute Avoidance/Adjudication Board), particularly Sub-Clause 21.3, provides for the DAAB's role in dispute avoidance, including informal assistance during site visits. This is a proactive mechanism designed to resolve issues before they escalate into formal disputes.

Key procedural requirements include: (1) both Parties must agree that they want DAAB involvement (Option A), (2) a joint written request must be submitted to the DAAB before assistance is provided (Option C), and (3) both Parties must be present during any informal discussions to ensure transparency and fairness (Option D). These steps ensure neutrality, equal participation, and procedural integrity.

Option B is incorrect and therefore the correct answer to the question. The Engineer has no formal role in authorizing or issuing a "non-objection letter" for DAAB informal assistance. The DAAB operates independently of the Engineer, and its involvement is strictly based on joint agreement between the Employer and Contractor. Introducing Engineer approval would contradict the independence and dispute avoidance function of the DAAB.

Thus, Option B does not belong to the required steps and is not supported by FIDIC provisions.

NEW QUESTION # 134

Under the FIDIC Yellow Book (both editions), the Contract is administered by the Employer (unless it appoints an Employer's Representative) who endeavours to reach agreement with the Contractor on each claim. Is this statement true or false?

- A. True
- B. False

Answer: A

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation:

This statement is true. The Employer administers the contract unless an Employer's Representative or Engineer is appointed to act on its behalf. The Employer (or its Representative) is responsible for reviewing and negotiating claims in good faith with the Contractor to reach agreement, in line with FIDIC procedures.
