CompTIA A+ Certification Exam: Core 1 Sample Questions (Q304-Q309):

NEW QUESTION # 304
A technician is troubleshooting internet connectivity issues after a firewall update. Users report that they can access local network resources, such as printers and shares, but cannot access the internet. Which of the following settings is most likely causing the issue?

- A. Subnet mask
- B. Static IP assignments
- C. Default gateway
- D. VLANs

Answer: C

Explanation:
Comprehensive and Detailed In-Depth Explanation:
If users can access local network resources but not the internet, the most likely culprit is a misconfigured or missing default gateway. The default gateway routes traffic from the local network to external networks (i.e., the internet). If it's not properly set or was altered during a firewall update, internet traffic won't be forwarded correctly.
* Option A: Static IPs could cause conflict, but wouldn't affect only external access if configured correctly.
* Option C: An incorrect subnet mask could isolate devices, but local communication would likely be impacted too.
* Option D: VLANs segment networks; while misconfigured VLANs could cause access issues, they'd more likely isolate local traffic as well.
CompTIA A+ Core 1 Exam Objective Reference:
* Objective 2.6: Given a scenario, configure and troubleshoot network connectivity.

NEW QUESTION # 305
Which cloud model provides hardware, storage, networking, and virtualization but requires customers to manage the OS and applications?

- A. PaaS
- B. XaaS
- C. IaaS
- D. SaaS

Answer: C

Explanation:
Infrastructure as a Service (IaaS) provides the foundational computing components: virtualized hardware, storage, networking, and hypervisor resources. CompTIA A+ explains that customers using IaaS are responsible for installing and maintaining:
* The operating system
* Applications
* Patches, updates, and configurations
This model gives organizations maximum flexibility because they can build custom server environments without purchasing physical hardware.
In contrast:
* SaaS (A) provides fully managed applications-users do not manage OS or software.
* PaaS (B) provides a development platform and tools but does not allow OS management.
* XaaS (D) is a broad term meaning "anything as a service," not a specific model.
Thus, IaaS is the only model where OS-level control remains with the customer.

NEW QUESTION # 306
A technician is installing a wireless access point and is required to run all cabling and make patch cords if necessary.
INSTRUCTIONS
Part 1
For each cable type, click the (+) to select the appropriate connector and tool.

part 2

An access point was moved and no longer has connectivity. Connect the access point, patch panel, and switch by clicking the (+) to select the appropriate cable end for each corresponding location to create a link.

The link will be visible after making the second selection of each pair.

Cable ends may be used multiple times, and all placeholders will be filled.
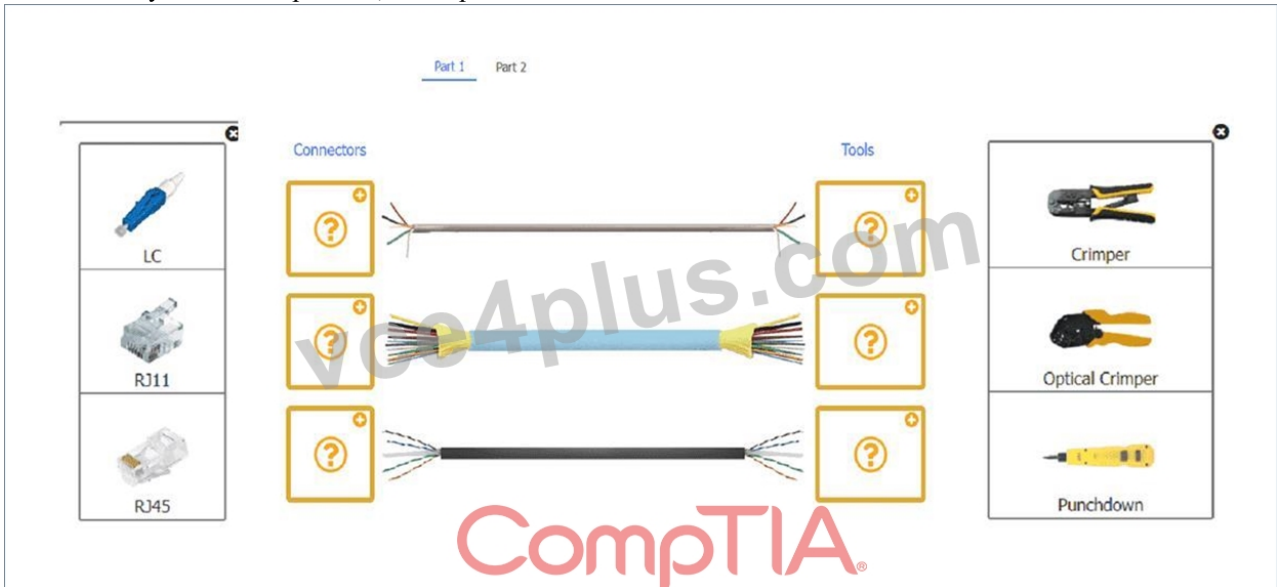

Answer:

Explanation:
See the solution below in Explanation.
Explanation:
Check the exhibit diagram for both parts.
A close-up of several cables AI-generated content may be incorrect.
Part 2
A group of different colored rectangular objects AI-generated content may be incorrect.
NEW QUESTION # 307
Which of the following storage options would a technician most likely recommend to have large amounts of affordable capacity without concern for read times on a desktop computer?

- A. 2x 1TB PCIe SSD in RAID 1
- B. 2TB SATA 3.5" 5,400rpm HDD
- C. 4TB SAS 2.5" 15,000rpm HDD
- D. 750GB NVMe M.2 SSD

Answer: B

Explanation:
If performance is not a primary concern and the user requires large, cost-effective storage, a 2TB 5400rpm SATA HDD is ideal. It offers high capacity at a lower price point than SSDs and faster HDDs.
Option A: NVMe drives offer exceptional speed but are significantly more expensive per GB and not necessary when read/write speed is not a concern.
Option B: RAID 1 improves redundancy but cuts usable capacity in half and uses expensive SSDs.
Option D: SAS drives are fast and reliable but are enterprise-grade and expensive - overkill for desktop use.
CompTIA A+ Core 1 Exam Objective Reference:
Objective 1.3: Given a scenario, install and configure storage devices.

NEW QUESTION # 308
Which of the following DNS records displays the destination of incoming email on a domain?

- A. CNAME
- B. AAAA
- C. MX
- D. TXT

Answer: C

Explanation:
DNS contains different record types that serve specific purposes. To determine where incoming email should be delivered for a particular domain, DNS uses an MX (Mail Exchange) record. CompTIA A+ identifies MX records as essential for routing mail from external senders to the appropriate mail server assigned to a domain.
The MX record specifies:
* The mail server hostname responsible for receiving messages
* Priority values, which determine which server to try first
* The server destination for SMTP traffic
When someone sends an email, the sending mail server queries DNS to find the MX record for the recipient's domain. The SMTP server then relays the email to the server listed in that record.
CNAME is used for aliasing hostnames, TXT is used for verification/security (SPF, DKIM), and AAAA maps a hostname to an IPv6 address. None of these direct email delivery. Only MX records are designed to instruct mail servers where to deliver incoming email.

Thus, the correct answer is MX.
