ACFE Certified Fraud Examiner - Financial Transactions and Fraud Schemes Exam Sample Questions (Q140-Q145):

NEW QUESTION # 140

_____, one of the synonyms for fraud, implies deceiving so thoroughly as to obscure the truth.

- A. Mislead
- B. Beguile
- C. Delude
- D. Deceive

Answer: C

Explanation:

Detailed Explanation:

* Rationale for Correct Answer: The word delude means to mislead the mind or judgment so completely that the truth is obscured. In fraud examination, this aligns with the ACFE definition of fraud as a "deliberate misrepresentation that causes another to act to their detriment." Fraud is not merely a false statement; it involves concealment or suppression of the truth with the intent to induce reliance. Thus, delude most accurately represents the deeper essence of fraud.

* Analysis of Incorrect Options (Distractors):

* A. Deceive: While fraud does involve deception, this word does not fully convey the thoroughness of obscuring the truth that fraud entails.

* C. Mislead: This implies causing error or leading astray but lacks the complete concealment aspect central to fraud.

* D. Beguile: Often connotes charm or trickery rather than the intentional concealment that characterizes fraud.

* Key Concept: This question tests the definition and essence of fraud - specifically that fraud is not only about deceiving but about deluding, or thoroughly misleading, in a way that obscures the truth.
