- A. Devices should be selected from the HPE GreenLake device inventory, assigned to an HPE Aruba Networking Central service, and the required subscriptions.
- B. After adding devices to HPE GreenLake inventory, you must contact HPE support to transfer them to HPE Aruba

- C. Network devices in the HPE GreenLake inventory are automatically available in HPE Aruba Networking Central, but subscriptions must be manually applied.

Answer: A

Explanation:

Within the HPE GreenLake portal, the management of hardware and software licenses follows a structured workflow. After the device is linked to the service, the administrator must then attach a valid subscription (Foundation or Advanced) to enable management features.
