Nutanix Certified Professional - End User Computing (NCP-EUC) 6.10 Exam Sample Questions (Q73-Q78):

NEW QUESTION # 73

After receiving multiple complaints from VMware Horizon-based virtual desktop users about their slower logon and application load times, an administrator performed troubleshooting on the issue to optimize the environment.

The following discoveries were made on the Nutanix cluster:

- A. 75% average memory utilization
- B. 4% average CPU Ready time
- C. Host power Policy set to High Performance
- D. Failed to create Native clone errors.

Answer: D

Explanation:

one of the possible causes of slower logon and application load times for VMware Horizon-based virtual desktop users is Failed to create Native clone errors. This error occurs when there is a problem with cloning virtual machines using Nutanix Native Clones technology. To troubleshoot this issue, you can check the following:

- * The Nutanix cluster has enough free space to create clones
- * The Nutanix cluster has enough CPU and memory resources to handle cloning operations
- * The Nutanix cluster is running a compatible version of AOS and AHV with VMware Horizon
- * The VMware Horizon environment is configured correctly to use Nutanix Native Clones
- * The VMware Horizon agent is installed and updated on the master image

NEW QUESTION # 74

An administrator is using EUC broker software to manage and direct connections to virtual desktops and applications. After losing power to a host in the cluster, the administrator needs to make sure the broker VMs restart. What will happen to the broker VMs in this situation?

- A. A policy must be created so the VMs will power back on.
- B. Built-in AHV policies will automatically restart the VMs.
- C. The VMs will live migrate to a powered-on host.
- D. The VMs will remain powered off until the host is back online.

Answer: B

Explanation:

Nutanix AHV includes a native feature called VM High Availability (VMHA), which protects VMs in the event of a host failure (such as power loss).

When a host fails, the Acropolis High Availability service detects the failure. Built-in AHV policies automatically restart the affected VMs on the remaining healthy hosts in the cluster.

Live migration (Option D) is not possible because the host is already down (powered off), meaning the memory state cannot be transferred; the VMs must be restarted (booted) on new hosts. No manual policy creation (Option B) is required as this is a core default function of the AHV cluster, provided resources are available.

NEW QUESTION # 76

The operations team have been tasked with increasing overall datacenter efficiency with a target minimum of 80% CPU, memory, and storage capacity utilization. They are requesting usage data from all application owners be sent on a monthly basis to be ingested into their capacity management software.

An administrator has an implementation of four Nutanix clusters under the management of a single Prism Central Instance.

How should the administrator best provide the data needed to the operations team to ensure adherence to the datacenter utilization directive?

- A. Schedule a monthly email report with CPU, Memory, and Storage Usage data across all clusters under the Reporting facility in Prism Central.
- B. Export the CPU Memory and Storage Usage metrics under Virtual Infrastructure/VMs in Prism Central and FTP the file to the operations team's FTP server.
- C. Create a Metric Chart in Prism Central with CPU, Memory, and Storage usage across all clusters and export the data to be sent to the operations team,
- D. Review the VM Efficiencies widget in Prism Central and export the data to a comma delimited file to be sent to the operations team.

Answer: A

Explanation:

This option allows you to create a custom report with the required metrics for all VMs across all clusters and send it automatically to the operations team via email. This way, you don't have to manually export or FTP the data every month.

- D. Five instances are running on every Weekday from 09:00am till 05:00 pm
