CrowdStrike Falcon Administrator Sample Questions (Q56-Q61):

NEW QUESTION # 56

After Network Containing a host, your Incident Response team states they are unable to remotely connect to the host. Which of the following would need to be configured to allow remote connections from specified IP's?

- A. Response Policy
- B. Maintenance Token
- C. Containment Policy
- D. IP Allowlist Management

Answer: D

Explanation:

The option that would need to be configured to allow remote connections from specified IP's after network containing a host is IP Allowlist Management. IP Allowlist Management allows you to define a list of trusted IP addresses that can communicate with your contained hosts. This way, you can isolate a host from the network while still allowing your incident response team or other authorized parties to remotely connect to the host for investigation or remediation purposes.

NEW QUESTION # 57

What is the primary concern with Windows sensors going into Reduced Functionality Mode?

- A. The operating systems on these hosts have crashed
- B. The sensors do not have full visibility into all events occurring on the host
- C. The sensors are unable to report any of their recorded events
- D. The hosts have been powered off or otherwise cannot communicate with the Falcon cloud

Answer: B

Explanation:

The primary concern with Windows RFM is that sensors do not have full visibility into all events occurring on the host. In Windows RFM, the sensor continues operating at reduced capacity and can still report events and trigger detections, but it temporarily unhooks from some kernel elements. Without those kernel elements, some detection patterns and a small number of preventions may not trigger. The host is not necessarily offline, powered off, or unable to communicate with the cloud. RFM is also not the same as an operating system crash; it is a protective compatibility state. The CCFA sensor deployment topic emphasizes that RFM reduces visibility and prevention coverage, which is why administrators should identify and remediate RFM hosts promptly.

NEW QUESTION # 58

Which report provides a filterable high-level overview of host information such as OS version, Device Type and Machine Domain, and also provides an active sensor heat map for a quick environment review?

- A. Sensor Status Report
- B. Sensor Policy Daily Report
- C. Sensor Overview Report
- D. Sensor Report

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 59

When creating a custom IOA for a specific domain, which syntax would be best for detecting or preventing on all subdomains as well?

- A. *baddomain\.xyz\baddomain\.xyz *
- B. baddomain\.xyz\baddomain\.xyz
- C. Custom IOA rules cannot be created for domains
- D. *\baddomain\.xyz\baddomain\.xyz

Answer: D

Explanation:

The syntax that would be best for detecting or preventing on all subdomains as well is

*.baddomain.xyz\baddomain\.xyz This syntax will match any domain that ends with .baddomain.xyz or is exactly baddomain.xyz.

The * wildcard will match any characters before the dot, and the | operator will match either side of the expression. This syntax can be used in a Custom IOC or a Custom IOA rule to detect or prevent network connections to malicious domains.

NEW QUESTION # 60

Which report lists counts of sensors in Reduced Functionality Mode (RFM) for all operating system types, and tracks how long a sensor version will be supported?

- A. Sensor Coverage Lookup
- B. Sensor Health Report
- C. Inactive Sensor Report
- D. Reduce Functionality Audit Report

Answer: A

Explanation:

The report that lists counts of sensors in Reduced Functionality Mode (RFM) for all operating system types, and tracks how long a sensor version will be supported is Sensor Coverage Lookup. The Sensor Coverage Lookup report allows you to view and compare the sensor versions and coverage status for each operating system type in your environment. You can use this report to identify any sensors that are in RFM or are approaching end-of-life (EOL) support.

You can also view the release date and EOL date for each sensor version.
