- A. Inform the Product Owner so he/she can work with the CEO.
- B. Add the item to the current Sprint without any adjustments.
- C. Add the item to the current Sprint and drop an item of equal size.
- D. Add the item to the next Sprint.

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 56

A Scrum Master is keeping a list of open impediments, but it is growing and he/she has been able to resolve only a small portion of the impediments. Which three techniques would be most helpful in this situation? (Choose three.)

- A. Alerting management to the impediments and their impact.
- B. Consulting with the Development Team.
- C. Arranging a triage meeting with all project managers.
- D. Prioritizing the list and working on them in order.

Answer: A,B,D

Explanation:
The correct answers are A, B, and D, because these techniques would be most helpful in this situation. Consulting with the Development Team may help identify the root causes of the impediments and possible solutions. Prioritizing the list and working on them in order may help reduce the backlog and focus on the most important or urgent issues. Alerting management to the impediments and their impact may help escalate the problems and get support from the organization.

NEW QUESTION # 57

- A. Work remaining across time.
- B. Accumulated cost.
- C. Accumulated business value delivered to the customer.
- D. Individual worker productivity.

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 58

What techniques could the Scrum Master use when the Scrum Team gets caught in an internal disagreement about which agile practices to apply? (Choose the best two answers.)

- A. Ask an external agile coach what they recommend.
- B. Use coaching techniques; such as open
- C. Involve the complete Scrum Team in making a decision.
- D. Ask team members to take the issue up with to the company's Human Resources department.

Answer: B,C

Explanation:
Two techniques that the Scrum Master could use when the Scrum Team gets caught in an internal disagreement about which agile practices to apply are to involve the complete Scrum Team in making a decision, and to use coaching techniques such as open questions and active listening, as stated in [3]: "The Scrum Master should facilitate a constructive dialogue among the team members and help them reach a consensus on which agile practices to use. The Scrum Master should also use coaching techniques such as open questions and active listening to understand the underlying needs and motivations of each team member and to help them find common ground."
