NEW QUESTION # 49

Team B is discussing new functionality when it becomes clear that two developers have different ideas on how to implement the Solution. Which of the following characteristics of a high-performing team can help Team B continue a productive discussion and arrive at a shared plan?

- A. Healthy conflict
- B. Clear goals and purpose
- C. Effective decision-making
- D. Mutual trust

Answer: A

Explanation:

In the context of SAFe and Agile Team dynamics, healthy conflict is a defining characteristic of a high-performing team. It allows members to openly challenge ideas, explore different perspectives, and arrive at better decisions collectively.

Healthy conflict is based on mutual respect and a shared commitment to team goals. It is different from destructive conflict-rather than creating division, it fosters creativity, innovation, and stronger collaboration. When teams are psychologically safe and can engage in constructive debate, they can refine solutions and build consensus faster.

SAFe emphasizes servant leadership and coaching behaviors that enable such open communication:

"High-performing Agile Teams engage in healthy conflict, where diverse viewpoints are explored and disagreements are resolved constructively, leading to better decisions and shared commitment." While trust, clear goals, and decision-making are also vital attributes, healthy conflict specifically addresses how teams can manage differing opinions productively, making it the correct answer.

NEW QUESTION # 50

What is one Scrum value that can help Agile Teams create transparency?

- A. Openness
- B. Communication
- C. Commitment
- D. Patience

Answer: A

Explanation:

Among the five Scrum values - Commitment, Focus, Openness, Respect, and Courage - the value that most directly supports transparency is Openness.

In both Scrum and SAFe, transparency is a foundational principle of empirical process control. Teams must be open about progress, impediments, challenges, and feedback to allow effective inspection and adaptation. When teams practice openness, trust grows, collaboration deepens, and issues are surfaced early rather than hidden.

The Scrum Guide (2020) states:

"The Scrum Team and its stakeholders are open about the work and the challenges. Openness encourages transparency, inspection, and adaptation." Similarly, SAFe encourages openness as part of the Lean-Agile mindset and team culture, ensuring alignment, honesty, and clarity across teams and ARTs.

Thus, the correct answer is B. Openness, as it directly enables transparency and honest collaboration.
