Real Estate Maryland Real Estate Salesperson Examination Sample Questions (Q18-Q23):

NEW QUESTION # 18

Under which type of buyer agency agreement does a buyer reserve the right to self-represent?

- A. Exclusive agency
- B. Exclusive right to represent
- C. Personal agency
- D. Open agency

Answer: A

Explanation:

In the buyer representation section, the course contrasts common forms:

* Exclusive right to represent: the brokerage is owed compensation if the buyer purchases during the term, regardless of who finds the property.

* Exclusive agency: the brokerage is the only broker engaged, but the buyer reserves the right to purchase without the broker and owe no commission if the buyer self-procures the property.

NEW QUESTION # 19

[Listing Agreements and Buyer Representation] Properly pricing a property that is entering the market will

Answer:

Explanation:

Increase the chances of a buyer making an offer and potentially reduce the amount of time the home is on the market. B. Most likely upset the sellers, because they'll net less than they would have if the home were priced higher. C. Typically result in an offer within the first one or two days. D. Upset the buyer because it creates a more competitive market. Maryland pre-licensing emphasizes that setting market-correct list price-supported by a CMA and current market conditions-maximizes exposure, attracts ready buyers, and typically shortens days on market.

Overpricing reduces showings and invites price reductions; underpricing risks leaving money on the table but does not guarantee instant offers. Correct pricing improves the probability of offers and a timelier sale.

NEW QUESTION # 20

Where should a licensee typically verify the latest regulations and updates regarding real estate practices?

- A. With a co-worker of the licensee
- B. With the supervising brokerage
- C. With the licensee themselves
- D. On the Real Estate Commission's website

Answer: D

Explanation:

A complaint against a real estate licensee in Maryland must be filed with the Maryland Real Estate Commission (MREC).

The complaint can be submitted online via the Commission's official website or by mail using the form provided by the MREC.

The Commission investigates alleged violations of the Real Estate Brokers Act, including misconduct, ethical breaches, or failure to comply with license law.

Complaints are not handled by the brokerage or individual agents.

NEW QUESTION # 21

How can a real estate licensee legally discuss contract clauses with a client without practicing law?

- A. By explaining the general purpose of the contract clause without interpreting its legal impact
- B. By describing the legal implications of contract clauses in detail
- C. By drafting new contract language to suit the client's needs
- D. By advising the client on landlord/tenant responsibilities

Answer: A

Explanation:

Licensees are permitted to explain the purpose and factual content of real estate contracts but may not interpret legal implications or draft custom clauses, which constitutes the unauthorized practice of law. The Maryland course teaches that to stay compliant, a salesperson should explain what a clause does in general terms and refer clients to a licensed attorney for legal interpretation.

Reference: Maryland 60-Hour Principles and Practices - "Real Estate Contracts"; Maryland Real Estate Brokers Act, 17-322 - Prohibited Acts (Unauthorized Practice of Law).

NEW QUESTION # 22

When prospecting and soliciting for new business, licensees should be familiar with which federal acts?

- A. Do Not Call Implementation Act, Sherman Act, and Unfair Trade Practices Act
- B. Sherman Act, Clayton Act, and Unfair Trade Practices Act
- C. Do Not Call Implementation Act, CAN-SPAM Act, and Junk Fax Prevention Act
- D. Human Relations Act, Fair Housing Act, and Americans with Disabilities Act

Answer: C

Explanation:

Within "Real Estate Brokerage Operations" (advertising and solicitation compliance), the course emphasizes federal rules governing outreach to consumers:

* The Do Not Call Implementation Act (and related FTC/FCC rules) regulates telemarketing, requiring scrubbing against the National Do Not Call Registry, time-of-day restrictions, identification requirements, and record-keeping.

* The CAN-SPAM Act governs commercial email, requiring accurate header information, a truthful subject line, clear identification as an advertisement (where applicable), a clear opt-out mechanism, and honoring opt-out requests promptly.

* The Junk Fax Prevention Act (amending the TCPA) restricts unsolicited fax advertisements, allowing them only under specific conditions (e.g., established business relationship, proper opt-out notice).

These are the primary federal solicitation rules covered for prospecting; antitrust and fair housing laws are also taught but address different risk areas (competition and discrimination, respectively) rather than direct telemarketing/email/fax solicitation mechanics.
