ISQI ISTQB Foundation Level - Acceptance Testing Sample Questions (Q54-Q59):

NEW QUESTION # 54
Which tool fits the mentioned acceptance test activities BEST?

- A. Test management and automation tools for business process model-based acceptance test generation.
- B. Model-based testing tools for managing incidents.
- C. Business process management tools for modeling business processes and rules.
- D. Requirements management tools for managing acceptance test execution campaigns.

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 55

Which of the following reasons explains BEST why it makes sense to review test reports?

- A. If the test reports are unclear or incomplete, the decision to release the product can be base on non reliable information
- B. Like all humans, the tester can make mistakes and overlook important acceptance criteria of a requirement / user story
- C. Test automation engineers may misunderstand the test case and implement test scripts that miss the target
- D. The test report quality significantly influences the impression third parties get from the organization / the product.

Answer: A

Explanation:
Test reports summarize the results of test execution and are often used by stakeholders, including business owners and release managers, to make informed decisions about whether to release a product. If these reports are ambiguous, incomplete, or inaccurate, the decisions based on them could be flawed, leading to reputational damage, customer dissatisfaction, or regulatory issues.
Option A is correct because it highlights the risk of basing critical go/no-go decisions on poor-quality reporting.
Other options:
B describes a problem with test case implementation, not test reporting.
C mentions public perception, which might be influenced by report quality, but it is secondary to the internal decision-making purpose.
D refers to human error during test execution or design, not the purpose of reviewing test reports.
A). If the test reports are unclear or incomplete, the decision to release the product can be based on non-reliable information
