If you are considering a career in business analysis or want to take your existing skills to the next level, the ECBA certification is an excellent place to start.

The Entry Certificate in Business Analysis (ECBA) is a professional certification offered by the International Institute of Business Analysis (IIBA). It is designed for individuals who are new to the field of business analysis and are looking to start their career in this field. The ECBA certification is an entry-level certification that provides a solid foundation in the principles and practices of business analysis.

The ECBA Certification Exam is based on the Business Analysis Body of Knowledge (BABOK) guide, which is a comprehensive framework for business analysis. ECBA exam tests candidates on their understanding of key business analysis concepts, such as requirements analysis, stakeholder management, and business process modeling. ECBA exam consists of 50 multiple-choice questions, and candidates have 1 hour to complete it. ECBA exam is computer-based, and candidates can take it at any Prometric testing center around the world. Upon passing the exam, candidates are awarded the ECBA certification, which is valid for life and does not require any maintenance or renewal fees.

IIBA Entry Certificate in Business Analysis (ECBA) Sample Questions (Q86-Q91):

NEW QUESTION # 86

Which technique represents a small, concise statement of functionality or quality needed to deliver value to a specific stakeholder?

- A. User stories
- B. Business case
- C. Lessons learned
- D. Scope modelling

Answer: A

Explanation:

User stories are a technique used in business analysis to represent a small, concise statement of functionality or quality needed to deliver value to a specific stakeholder. They are expressed by presenting the role, the goal, or the value and are a fundamental component of Agile methodologies. User stories help teams understand what the stakeholders need without going into excessive detail, allowing for iterative development and refinement of requirements.

References: The information is verified as per the Business Analysis Learning documents and resources, which discuss various techniques including user stories as a way to capture stakeholder needs and prioritize development of solutions<sup>12</sup>.
