- A. Changes made while working inside the Map Editor cannot be recovered.
- B. A user with the ServiceAdministrator role can recover the unsaved changes.
- C. A user with the ServiceAdministrator role can unlock an integration that has unsaved changes.
- D. A backup copy is created after each completed task, therefore there is no time limit to logging back in and recovering your changes.
- E. Changes made while editing a Connections page cannot be recovered.

Answer: A

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation:

Recovery Feature:

* E:False-mapper changes recoverable.

NEW QUESTION # 68

There are use cases in which you need to perform an advanced XSLT task that you cannot perform in the Oracle Integration Cloud (OIC) data mapper. To perform the advanced mapping tasks, you decide to use an external XSLT mapper and then import the .xsl file back to your integration. What is NOT a valid consideration when handling this use case?

- A. The exported archive must be imported into an Oracle Service Bus project in JDeveloper.
- B. You must export the entire integration that contains one or more .xsl files.
- C. Once the advanced mapping is complete, you must import the entire integration that contains the updated .xsl files.
- D. The exported archive file can include a map file that is largely complete in content or a map file that is empty of content.

Answer: A

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation:

Advanced XSLT in OIC requires external tools. Let's analyze:

* A:True-exported maps can be complete or empty templates.

* B:False-not required; XSLT can be edited in any editor and reimported directly.

* C:True-entire integration must be reimported with updated XSLT.

NEW QUESTION # 69

Which statement about Oracle Integration (OIC) is NOT valid?

- A. An application pattern integration can contain one or more trigger (source) connections for requests sent to OIC and one or more invoke (target) connections for requests sent from OIC.
- B. Using the connectivity agent, you can create hybrid integrations and exchange messages between applications in private or on-premises networks and OIC.
- C. When you open the Map Editor for a request or response message in an integration, the data structures are automatically populated with the information pulled from the trigger and invoke connections.
- D. OIC Lookups are based on a static definition, meaning you create and populate them during design time.

Answer: A

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation:

OIC Patterns:

* B:False-one trigger per app-driven integration.

NEW QUESTION # 70

You have a use case requiring the design of a synchronous Oracle Integration Cloud (OIC) integration flow that returns a custom business fault message to the client if processing fails due to an external runtime fault encountered during the integration instance execution. Which implementation strategy best satisfies this requirement?

- A. Implement the Global Fault handler to catch the runtime fault, and then use the Rethrow Fault action to send the custom fault to the client.
- B. Implement a scope fault handler to catch the runtime fault, then allow the global fault handler to automatically send the runtime fault to the error hospital.
- C. Create a custom scope fault handler to catch the runtime fault, and then use the ReThrow Fault action to send the fault to the Error Hospital.
- D. Implement a scope fault handler to catch the runtime fault, and then use the Fault Return action providing mapped data for the custom fault.

Answer: D

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation:

Custom fault in synchronous flow:

* A:True-scope fault handler catches the error, and Fault Return sends a custom response to the client.

* B:False-error hospital is internal, not client-facing.

* C:False-ReThrow sends to global handler, not client directly.

NEW QUESTION # 71

- A. You should install the connectivity agents on the same host as the target application, and then specify different Agent group identifiers for each Agent during its installation.
- B. You cannot have more than two Agent instances per Agent group. Attempting to include a third Agent instance in the same group during installation results in an error.
- C. Since the File Adapter is not supported in high-availability environments, you must use an Agent Group that uses only one installed active Agent.
- D. You must have the OIC ServiceDeployer role or higher permissions to download and install the OIC Connectivity Agent.
- E. Each host on which the agent is installed must be configured on separate subnets and assigned to the same OIC Agent group.
