NEW QUESTION # 283

An app builder wants to limit the number of fields users are required to fill out when creating a new Opportunity. Once they fill out the required fields and save, the full record page with additional fields relevant to the Opportunity type becomes available.

How could this be accomplished?

- A. Once the required fields are populated, use a sharing rule to share the new fields with the user.
- B. Use different page layouts for Opportunity types based on the user profile.
- C. Make the Opportunity type a required field on the initial Opportunity page layout and use automation to fill in the type field to a record type.
- D. Hide additional sections on the page layout and show the users how to manually expand them when they want to fill in the fields in the hidden sections.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Making the Opportunity type a required field on the initial Opportunity page layout and using automation to fill in the type field to a record type is a way to limit the number of fields users are required to fill out when creating a new Opportunity. This way, the app builder can assign different page layouts for different record types based on the Opportunity type. The other options are not feasible or effective
