ACFE Certified Fraud Examiner - Fraud Prevention and Deterrence Exam Sample Questions (Q204-Q209):

NEW QUESTION # 204

Black a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE), was hired to conduct a fraud examination He did not find fraud, but in Black's opinion the controls he examined were deficient Under the ACFE Code of Professional Ethics Black is not permitted to express his opinion on the deficient controls.

- A. True
- B. False

Answer: B

Explanation:

* ACFE Code of Professional Ethics on Reporting Findings:

* The Code allows fraud examiners to report on deficiencies in controls if these are relevant to their engagement. Highlighting such deficiencies helps improve the organization's anti-fraud measures.

* Why B is Correct:

* Black is permitted to express his opinion about deficient controls, even if no fraud is found, as long as his conclusions are based on evidence and within the scope of his professional expertise.

* References:

* ACFE ethical guidelines encourage examiners to report all relevant findings to promote transparency and improved governance.

References for All Questions:

* ISA 240 and professional auditing standards on fraud-related responsibilities.

* ACFE Code of Professional Ethics and Fraud Examination Guide.

* Principles of professional skepticism in fraud detection and examination.

NEW QUESTION # 205

The objectives of a fraud risk management program include

- A. Limiting the damage caused by fraud occurrences
- B. Proactively identifying fraud risks
- C. All of the above
- D. Punishing fraud perpetrators

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 206

The Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission 's (COSO) Enterprise Risk Management-Integrating with Strategy and Performance defines what as 'the continual iterative process of obtaining information and sharing it throughout the entity'?

- A. Information, communication, and reporting
- B. Performance
- C. Governance and culture
- D. Strategy and objective-setting

Answer: A

Explanation:

Information, communication, and reporting involve the continual process of gathering and sharing relevant information across an organization to support decision-making and risk management. This ensures that all stakeholders are informed and that information flows effectively to enhance organizational performance.

NEW QUESTION # 207

Which of the following is NOT an effective way to help prevent fraud through the organization's performance measurement and management programs?

- A. Providing regular training to ensure that all employees are sufficiently prepared to perform their tasks
- B. Tying employee compensation to reasonable organizational performance goals
- C. Including ethics-based metrics as a component of performance evaluations
- D. Establishing loosely defined job descriptions that allow employees flexibility in their roles

Answer: A

Explanation:

Fraud Prevention Through Performance Management: Performance measurement and management programs can play a role in preventing fraud by ensuring accountability, setting ethical expectations, and reinforcing organizational goals.

Analysis of Options:

A: Ethics-based metrics: Encourages accountability and reduces fraud risks.

B: Regular training: Ensures employees are competent, reducing errors and opportunities for fraud.

D: Reasonable performance goals: Prevents pressure to commit fraud by setting realistic benchmarks.

C: Loosely defined job descriptions: This creates ambiguity, reduces accountability, and increases the risk of fraud, making it ineffective.

Conclusion: Option C is not an effective way to prevent fraud.
