All of the following objectives are included in the operations of a Payroll Department EXCEPT:

- A. Reporting to management
- B. Giving tax advice
- C. Cost savings
- D. Accurate tax reporting

Answer: B

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation:

The Payroll Department's key functions include:

Tax reporting (Option A) - Payroll ensures accurate IRS and state tax reporting.

Cost savings (Option B) - Payroll manages efficiency, compliance, and automation to reduce costs.

Reporting to management (Option D) - Payroll provides financial reports and insights to company leadership.

However, giving tax advice (Option C) is NOT a function of payroll. Payroll professionals calculate and withhold taxes but do not provide tax planning advice to employees.
