IIA-CIA-Part1 exam is an important certification for individuals who are looking to pursue a career in internal auditing. Essentials of Internal Auditing certification is globally recognized and highly valued by employers. IIA-CIA-Part1 Exam covers a wide range of topics related to internal auditing and is designed to test the knowledge and skills required for individuals to perform their duties effectively.

IIA Essentials of Internal Auditing Sample Questions (Q686-Q691):

NEW QUESTION # 686
Senior management relies on the professional judgment of an internal auditor and uses outcomes of her audit work to make business decisions Which of the following personal qualities displayed by the internal auditor is most likely the foundation for this relationship?

- A. Flexibility
- B. Negotiation skills.
- C. Business acumen
- D. Integrity

Answer: D

Explanation:
The personal quality of integrity is most likely the foundation for the relationship where senior management relies on the professional judgment of an internal auditor. Integrity ensures that the auditor conducts her work ethically and objectively, provides truthful and accurate assessments, and adheres to both the standards of the profession and the organization's policies. This quality builds trust and reliability in the auditor's findings and recommendations.
The IIA's Code of Ethics and International Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing.

NEW QUESTION # 687
A fraud investigation was completed by management, and a proven fraud was communicated to relevant authorities. According to MA guidance, which of the following roles would be most appropriate for the internal audit activity to undertake after the investigation?

- A. Review the investigation and implement any improvements to the process.
- B. Plan employee sessions and team building strategies for the organization to improve awareness of fraud among employees.
- C. Determine why The fraud was not detected earlier and design controls to strengthen early detection.
- D. Conduct lessons learned sessions to ascertain how the fraud occurred and which controls failed.

Answer: D

NEW QUESTION # 688

- A. Larceny.
- B. Kiting.
- C. Skimming.
- D. Lapping.

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 690

According to IIA guidance, which of the following activities is appropriate for an internal auditor to perform with regard to the organization's corporate social responsibility (CSR) program?
1. Determine whether the organization has adequate controls to achieve its CSR objectives.
2. Facilitate a management self-assessment of CSR controls and results.
3. Consult on the project design and implementation for the CSR program.
4. Exclude CSR-related external risks that are beyond the control of the organization.

- A. 2, 3, and 4 only.
- B. 1 and 2 only.
- C. 3 and 4 only.
- D. 1, 2 and 3 only.

Answer: B

Explanation:
According to IIA guidance, it is appropriate for an internal auditor to determine whether the organization has adequate controls to achieve its CSR objectives and to facilitate a management self-assessment of CSR controls and results. These activities are within the scope of internal auditing as they involve evaluating the effectiveness of governance, risk management, and control processes. Consulting on project design and implementation for CSR or excluding external risks goes beyond the typical role of internal auditing, which is to provide independent assurance.
