問題 #18

A strategy designer collaborated with the product design team at Cloud kicks and is now coming to the end of their discovery. Which technique should be used to frame the design challenge on the right problems?

- A. Design "For an optimal experience..." questions.
- B. Create "As a user, I should..." questions.
- C. Construct "How might we..." questions.

答案： C

解題說明：

The technique that should be used to frame the design challenge on the right problems is to construct "How might we..." questions. "How might we..." questions are a way to reframe problems into opportunities for innovation. They are open-ended, optimistic, and user-centered, and they help define the scope and direction of the design project. Designing "For an optimal experience..." questions or creating "As a user, I should..." questions may not be effective for framing the design challenge, as they may imply or limit potential solutions.

- A. Novelty, privacy, and
- B. Competitive advantage, impact, and own ability
- C. Desirability, viability, and feasibility

答案： C

- B. Create products from recycled materials.
- C. Focus on creating enduring advantage

答案： B

解題說明：

The best values-based design principle to use to reinforce the feedback that both employees and consumers are seeking more sustainable products is to create products from recycled materials, as this helps reduce environmental impact, conserve resources, and demonstrate social responsibility. Using energy from renewable resources or focusing on creating enduring advantage may not be directly related to the product design.
