- B. Branch Office
- C. Coordinating Unit
- D. Supporting Organization/Units

Answer: D

NEW QUESTION # 55

- A. federal systems that process, store, or transmit CUI.
- B. nonfederal systems that process, store, or transmit CUI.
- C. federal systems that process, store, or transmit CUI. or that provide protection for the system components.
- D. nonfederal systems that process, store, or transmit CUI. or that provide protection for the system components.

Answer: D

NEW QUESTION # 56

When assessing an OSC for CMMC: the Lead Assessor should use the information from the Discussion and Further Discussion sections in each practice because it:

- A. provides additional information to facilitate the assessment of the practice.
- B. is mandatory and aligns with FAR Clause 52.204-21.
- C. is normative for an OSC to follow.
- D. contains examples that an OSC must implement.

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 57

Evidence gathered from an OSC is being reviewed. Based on the assessment and organizational scope, the Lead Assessor requests the Assessment Team to verify that the coverage by domain, practice. Host Unit.

Supporting Organization/Unit, and enclaves are comprehensive enough to rate against each practice. Which criteria is the assessor referring to?

- A. Objectivity
- B. Capability
- C. Sufficiency
- D. Adequacy

Answer: D

Explanation:

Step 1: Understand the Definitions of Evidence Evaluation CriteriaTheCMMC Assessment Process (CAP) introduces two key criteria for evaluating evidence:

Adequacy- Does the evidencealign with the practice?

Sufficiency- Is the evidence comprehensive enough in terms of coverage across systems, users, and scope?

CAP v1.0 - Section 3.5.4:

"Evidence must be evaluated for both adequacy (is it the right evidence?) and sufficiency (is there enough of it across all in-scope assets and areas?) to score a practice as MET."

#Step 2: Applying to the Scenario In the question, the Lead Assessor is asking the team to verify that evidence is sufficient across:

Domains

Practices

Host Units

Supporting Organizations

Enclaves

This is a direct reference to sufficiency, which evaluates whether the breadth and depth of evidence is enough to make an informed judgment that the control is truly implemented across the entire assessed environment.

A). Adequacy# Adequacy refers to the relevance of the evidence to the specific practice - not its coverage across scope.

B). Capability# Not a term used in evidence validation within CMMC CAP documentation.

D). Objectivity# While objectivity is important, it refers to the unbiased nature of assessment activities, not to the extent of evidence coverage.

#Why the Other Options Are Incorrect

When an assessor evaluates whether the evidence is broad enough across all necessary systems, units, and enclaves to score a practice as MET, they are evaluating sufficiency- one of the two core criteria for evidence validity in a CMMC assessment.

NEW QUESTION # 58

An assessment procedure consists of an assessment objective, potential assessment methods, and assessment objects. Which statement is part of an assessment objective?

- A. Examination, interviews, and testing
- B. Exercising assessment objects under specified conditions
- C. Specifications and mechanisms
- D. Determination statement related to the practice

Answer: D

Explanation:

Understanding CMMC Assessment Procedures A CMMC assessment procedure consists of:

* Assessment Objective- Defines what is being evaluated and the expected outcome.

* Assessment Methods- Specifies how the evaluation is conducted (e.g., examination, interviews, testing).

* Assessment Objects- Identifies what is being evaluated, such as policies, systems, or people.

* Assessment Objectives included determination statements that describe the expected outcome for each CMMC security practice.

* These statements define whether a practice has been adequately implemented based on documented evidence and assessment findings.

* The CMMC Assessment Process (CAP) Guide and NIST SP 800-171A specify that each practice has a determination statement guiding assessment decisions.

* A. Specifications and mechanisms# Incorrect

* These belong to assessment objects, which refer to the systems, policies, and mechanisms being evaluated.

* B. Examination, interviews, and testing# Incorrect

* These are assessment methods, which describe how assessors verify compliance (e.g., through interviews or testing).

* D. Exercising assessment objects under specified conditions# Incorrect

* This refers to assessment testing, which is a method, not an assessment objective.

* CMMC Assessment Process (CAP) Guide- Describes determination statements as the core of assessment objectives.

* NIST SP 800-171A- Defines determination statements as a key element of evaluating security controls.

Why the Correct Answer is "C"? Why Not the Other Options? Relevant CMMC 2.0 References: Final Justification: Since an assessment objective includes a determination statement that describes whether a practice is implemented properly, the correct answer is C.
