HPE Hybrid Cloud Solutions Sample Questions (Q90-Q95):

NEW QUESTION # 90

Match the RAID level with its capacity overhead. (Each option may be used once, more than once, or not at all.)

Answer:

Explanation:

Explanation:

RAID 0: This level has zero overhead from capacity perspective, as it uses all the available disk space for data storage without any redundancy or parity. However, it also has no fault tolerance and if one disk fails, all data is lost.

RAID 1: This level has capacity of one drive as overhead, as it uses disk mirroring to create an exact copy of data on two or more disks. This provides high reliability and fault tolerance, but reduces the usable disk space by half.

RAID 5: This level has capacity of one drive as overhead, as it uses disk striping with parity to distribute data and parity blocks across three or more disks. This provides a balance between performance and reliability, as it can tolerate one disk failure without losing data.

RAID 6: This level has capacity of two drives as overhead, as it uses disk striping with double parity to distribute data and two parity blocks across four or more disks. This provides higher reliability and fault tolerance than RAID 5, as it can tolerate two disk failures without losing data.

NEW QUESTION # 91

A customer wants a new server for a database workload.

What are the most important factors to consider? (Select two.)

- A. form factor
- B. processor speed
- C. power supply wattage
- D. amount of memory installed
- E. support level

Answer: B,D

Explanation:

Understanding the Requirements:

The customer needs a new server specifically for a database workload.

Database workloads typically require high performance and adequate memory to handle large amounts of data efficiently.

Factors to Consider:

A . Processor Speed: The speed of the processor is crucial for database performance. Faster processors can handle more transactions per second and process queries more quickly.

B . Support Level: While important for ongoing maintenance and troubleshooting, it is not directly related to the performance of the database workload.

C . Amount of Memory Installed: Memory (RAM) is critical for database operations. More memory allows for larger caches, faster query responses, and better overall performance.

D . Form Factor: Important for physical deployment considerations (e.g., rack vs. tower), but not a primary factor for database performance.

E . Power Supply Wattage: Ensuring sufficient power is essential, but it is generally a baseline requirement rather than a primary performance factor.

Why Processor Speed and Amount of Memory Installed are the Correct Answers:

Processor Speed: Directly affects the computational power available to process database transactions and queries.

Amount of Memory Installed: Directly impacts the ability of the server to store and access data quickly, enhancing database performance by reducing the need to access slower disk storage.

These considerations ensure that the server is equipped to handle the demands of a database workload, providing the necessary performance and responsiveness.
