ASIS Physical Security Professional Exam Sample Questions (Q293-Q298):

NEW QUESTION # 293

A security manager performing a site survey using crime prevention through environmental design (CPTED) techniques would MOST likely recommend:

- A. Installing video cameras for increased surveillance
- B. Planting trees for boundary control
- C. Constructing a brick wall as a barrier
- D. Installing revolving doors for entry control

Answer: A

Explanation:

Although CPTED focuses heavily on natural surveillance, incorporating mechanical or electronic means such as video cameras enhances visibility and monitoring. Surveillance deters criminal behavior and increases the chance of detection.

B (Brick wall) may obstruct visibility.

C (Planting trees) could obscure lines of sight.

D (Revolving doors) relate more to access control than CPTED surveillance goals.

NEW QUESTION # 294

What is the result of a jurisdiction either using common law, which was adopted from English traditions, or passing specific legislation called statutory law?

- A. Criminal law
- B. Case law
- C. Constitution law
- D. Offended suit

Answer: B

Explanation:

Case law is the result of judicial decisions and precedents established through court interpretations of existing laws, whether based on common law (historical precedents from English law) or statutory law (laws passed by legislatures). It forms part of the legal framework in many jurisdictions and evolves through court rulings.

Criminal law (A) defines offenses and penalties.

Constitution law (D) governs foundational legal principles.

Offended suit (B) is not a recognized legal term.
