NEW QUESTION # 32

The deployment of SmartWiFi feature supports SAAS model.

- A. False
- B. True

Answer: B

Explanation:

The statement is True. The SmartWiFi feature in Huawei's solutions supports the SaaS (Software as a Service) model, enabling service providers to offer managed Wi-Fi services to their customers.

Key aspects of SmartWiFi in the SaaS model include:

* Centralized Management: Providers can manage Wi-Fi networks for multiple customers from a single platform, ensuring consistent performance and security.

* Scalability: The SaaS model allows providers to scale their services up or down based on demand, accommodating seasonal fluctuations or business growth.

* Cost Efficiency: Customers pay only for the services they use, reducing upfront costs and making advanced Wi-Fi solutions more accessible.

* Enhanced Features: SmartWiFi includes capabilities like automatic channel optimization, interference mitigation, and real-time monitoring, all delivered via the cloud.

This approach is particularly beneficial for small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) that lack the resources to manage complex Wi-Fi networks independently.
