Answer: B

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation From Exact Extract: Machine Learning is defined as a subset of AI that enables computer systems to learn and improve from experience or data, incorporating elements from fields like computer science, statistics, and psychology. This distinguishes it from general AI, generative AI, or foundation models, focusing on data-driven learning without explicit programming.

Exact extracts supporting this:

"Machine learning is a subset of artificial intelligence (AI) in which computers learn from data and improve with experience without being explicitly programmed."sap.com

"Machine learning (ML) is a subset of AI that enables computer systems to learn and improve from experience or data, and incorporates elements from fields like computer science, statistics, and psychology."sap.com

"Machine learning is a subset of artificial intelligence (AI). It is focused on teaching computers to learn from data and to improve with experience - instead of ..."learning.sap.com Other options are incorrect because:

Option A: This describes foundation models or generative AI systems that use self-supervised learning for multi-task performance, not specifically machine learning.

Option C: This refers to generative AI, a specific application of deep learning using foundation models for content creation.

Option D: This defines artificial intelligence in general, encompassing human-like capabilities beyond just learning from data.
