NEW QUESTION # 40

Which remedial actions may be undertaken by a purchasing organisation following a supplier audit? (Select TWO)

- B. Daily brainstorming meetings with the supplier
- C. Employing the supplier's staff for job training
- D. Defining corrective actions for the supplier
- E. Violating the terms of the supplier contract

Answer: A,D

When supplier audits reveal issues, buyers should implement constructive measures. Supplier development programmes (A) help improve performance through training, mentoring, and joint improvement initiatives.

Corrective action plans (E) outline specific steps and timelines to address identified gaps. Options like hiring supplier staff or informal brainstorming do not provide structured improvements, while violating contracts would undermine governance. Responsible sourcing emphasises supplier engagement and continuous improvement, ensuring suppliers meet ethical, quality, and sustainability expectations rather than simply penalising them.
