- B. Do not send the report since the project was prematurely terminated.
- C. Check the communications management plan and act accordingly.
- D. Send the report to the finance manager

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 1468

A project manager has been assigned to deliver a challenging project on time and within budget. The project manager needs to empower the team members by removing organizational impediments and facilitating collaboration.

What should the project manager do to lead the project?

- A. Use a servant leader approach.
- B. Assume the functional manager role.
- C. Perform the project sponsor activities.
- D. Act as the project owner.

Answer: A

Explanation:

The servant leader approach is the most effective for empowering team members and facilitating collaboration. This approach focuses on the growth and well-being of people and the communities to which they belong. The servant leader shares power, puts the needs of others first, and helps people develop and perform as highly as possible. This is in line with the PMBOK guide's principles of project leadership and team management, which emphasize the importance of servant leadership in project management¹.

: The PMBOK Guide and the PMP Examination Content Outline discuss the role of the project manager in leading teams and the importance of servant leadership in project management². The Professional in Business Analysis Reference Materials also highlight the significance of leadership approaches that focus on collaboration and empowerment³.
