CIMA F3 Financial Strategy Sample Questions (Q62-Q67):

NEW QUESTION # 62

The directors of the following four entities have been discussing dividend policy:

Entity name	Description of entity
A	A government-owned (public sector) entity.
B	A large company whose shares are traded on a major stock exchange.
C	A small company whose shares are traded on a small company stock exchange and are owned by investors seeking maximum capital growth on their investment.
D	A small family-owned private company whose shareholders rely on their dividend income as their main source of income.

Which of these four entities is most likely to have a residual dividend policy?

- A. A
- B. B
- C. C
- D. D

Answer: D

Explanation:

A residual dividend policy pays dividends only after all positive-NPV projects are funded - typical for firms whose investors want growth rather than income.

C is a small listed company whose investors seek maximum capital growth # classic residual policy case.

- A. Debt for share exchange.
- B. Cash offer, funded from existing cash resources.
- C. Share for share exchange.
- D. Cash offer, funded by a rights issue.
- E. Cash offer, funded by borrowings.

Answer: C,D

NEW QUESTION # 65

Formed in 2010, the International Integrated Reporting Council (IIRC) brings together a cross-section of representatives from a wide variety of business sectors. The primary purpose of the IIRC's framework is to help enable an organisation to communicate which of the following?

- A. How it creates value in the short medium and long term.
- B. How it minimises the environmental impact of its business processes.
- C. How it contributes positively to the economic wellbeing of the environment in which it operates.
- D. How it ensures that the conflicting needs of different stakeholder groups are met in an optimal manner.

Answer: A

Explanation:

The IIRC's Integrated Reporting Framework is about showing how an organisation creates value over short, medium and long term, not just financial but using all capitals.
