IAPP Certified Information Privacy Technologist (CIPT) Sample Questions (Q75-Q80):

NEW QUESTION # 75

An organization is launching a new online subscription-based publication. As the service is not aimed at children, users are asked for their date of birth as part of the of the sign-up process. The privacy technologist suggests it may be more appropriate ask if an individual is over 18 rather than requiring they provide a date of birth. What kind of threat is the privacy technologist concerned about?

- A. Insecurity.
- B. Interference.
- C. Identification.
- D. Minimization.

Answer: D

Explanation:

Data minimization is a principle of data protection that dictates only collecting personal data that is necessary for the specified purpose. By asking if an individual is over 18, rather than collecting their full date of birth, the organization adheres to the principle of data minimization, reducing the amount of personal information collected and thereby lowering the risk of identification and misuse of personal data. This approach aligns with the principles set forth in data protection regulations such as the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

NEW QUESTION # 76

What is the main benefit of using a private cloud?

- A. The ability to cut costs for storing, maintaining, and accessing data.
- B. The ability to restrict data access to employees and contractors.
- C. The ability to outsource data support to a third party.
- D. The ability to use a backup system for personal files.

Answer: D

NEW QUESTION # 77

SCENARIO - Please use the following to answer the next question:

Wesley Energy has finally made its move, acquiring the venerable oil and gas exploration firm Lancelot from its long-time owner David Wilson. As a member of the transition team, you have come to realize that Wilson's quirky nature affected even Lancelot's data practices, which are maddeningly inconsistent. "The old man hired and fired IT people like he was changing his necktie," one of Wilson's seasoned lieutenants tells you, as you identify the traces of initiatives left half complete.

For instance, while some proprietary data and personal information on clients and employees is encrypted, other sensitive
