NEW QUESTION # 127

- B. Median
- C. Average
- D. Range

Answer: D

NEW QUESTION # 128

Which of the following boxes indicates that a Type II error has occurred?

- A. 0
- B. 1
- C. 2
- D. 3

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 129

A user imports a data file into the accounts payable system each day. On a regular basis, the field input is not what the system is expecting, so it results in an error for the row and a broken import process. To resolve the issue, the user opens the file, finds the error in the row, and manually corrects it before attempting the import again. The import sometimes breaks on subsequent attempts, though. Which of the following changes should be made to this process to reduce the number of errors?

- A. Create a data field to data type validator to run the file through prior to import.
- B. Spot-check the file prior to import to catch and correct field errors.
- C. Delete all incorrect inputs and upload the corrected file.
- D. Have the user manually review the file for data completeness before loading it

Answer: A

Explanation:

Explanation

A data field to data type validator is a tool or a process that checks if the data in each field of a file matches the expected data type, such as text, number, date, etc. A data field to data type validator can help to identify and correct any errors or inconsistencies in the data before importing it into the accounts payable system. This would reduce the number of errors and broken imports, as well as save time and effort for the user.

NEW QUESTION # 130

Consider two different datasets, one with gas prices and the other with food prices. Which of the following measures is most affected by outliers?

- A. Median
- B. Mean
- C. Absolute value
- D. Mode

Answer: B

Explanation:

The mean (average) is the most sensitive measure when it comes to outliers. If a dataset contains extreme values (either very high or very low), they disproportionately affect the mean, making it a less robust measure of central tendency.

NEW QUESTION # 131

A sales analyst needs to report how the sales team is performing to target. Which of the following files will be important in determining 2019 performance attainment?

- A. 2019 goal data
- B. 2018 actual revenue
- C. 2019 commission plan
- D. 2018 goal data

Answer: A

Explanation:

2019 goal data

To report how the sales team is performing to target, the sales analyst needs to compare the actual sales revenue with the expected or planned sales revenue for the same period. The 2019 goal data is the file that contains the expected or planned sales revenue for the year 2019, which is the target that the sales team is aiming to achieve. By comparing the 2019 goal data with the 2019 actual revenue, the sales analyst can calculate the performance attainment, which is the percentage of the goal that was met by the sales team.

Option A is incorrect, as 2018 goal data is not relevant for determining 2019 performance attainment. The 2018 goal data contains the expected or planned sales revenue for the year 2018, which is not the target that the sales team is aiming to achieve in 2019.

Option B is incorrect, as 2018 actual revenue is not relevant for determining 2019 performance attainment.

The 2018 actual revenue contains the actual sales revenue for the year 2018, which is not comparable with the 2019 goal data or the 2019 actual revenue.

Option D is incorrect, as 2019 commission plan is not relevant for determining 2019 performance attainment.

The 2019 commission plan contains the rules and rates for calculating and paying commissions to the sales team based on their performance attainment, but it does not contain the expected or planned sales revenue for the year 2019.
