Snowflake SnowPro Advanced Administrator ADA-C02 Sample Questions

(Q48-Q53):

NEW QUESTION # 48

A retailer uses a TRANSACTIONS table (100M rows, 1.2 TB) that has been clustered by the STORE_ID column (varchar(50)). The vast majority of analyses on this table are grouped by STORE_ID to look at store performance. There are 1000 stores operated by the retailer but most sales come from only 20 stores. The Administrator notes that most queries are currently experiencing poor pruning, with large amounts of bytes processed by even simple queries. Why is this occurring?

- A. The cardinality of the stores to transaction count ratio is too low to use the STORE_ID as a clustering key.
- B. The STORE_ID should be numeric.
- C. Sales across stores are not uniformly distributed.
- D. The table is not big enough to take advantage of the clustering key.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Clustering is effective when data distribution across the clustering key is relatively uniform. In this case, most transactions are concentrated in only 20 of the 1000 stores, leading to skewed data distribution. This imbalance causes poor pruning, since large portions of micro-partitions still need to be scanned, even for queries targeting specific stores.

NEW QUESTION # 49

What is a characteristic of Snowflake's transaction locking and concurrency modeling?

- A. A deadlock cannot occur in Snowflake, since concurrently executed queries and DML statements do not block one another.
- B. Queries executed within a given transaction see that transaction's uncommitted changes.
- C. If two queries are concurrently executed against the same table, one of the two queries will be blocked until the other query completes.
- D. Transaction locking in Snowflake is enforced exclusively at the row and table levels.

Answer: A

Explanation:

Snowflake uses multi-version concurrency control (MVCC), which allows queries and DML statements to operate without blocking each other. This architecture eliminates the possibility of deadlocks because transactions work on snapshots of data rather than locking rows or tables in ways that could cause contention.

NEW QUESTION # 50

What SCIM integration types are supported in Snowflake? (Choose three.)

- A. Custom
- B. Okta
- C. Amazon Web Services (AWS)
- D. Google Cloud Platform (GCP)
- E. Azure Active Directory (Azure AD)
- F. Duo Security Provisioning Connector

Answer: A,B,E

Explanation:

Snowflake supports SCIM integrations with Okta, Azure Active Directory (Azure AD), and custom SCIM integrations. These allow automated provisioning and de-provisioning of users and roles. SCIM is not provided directly through AWS, GCP, or Duo.

NEW QUESTION # 51

A user with the proper role issues the following commands when setting up and activating network policies:

```
CREATE OR REPLACE NETWORK POLICY foo_policy
```

```
ALLOWED_IP_LIST = ('1.1.1.0/24', '2.2.2.0/24', '3.3.3.0/24')
BLOCKED_IP_LIST = ('1.1.1.1')
COMMENT = 'Account level policy';
ALTER ACCOUNT SET NETWORK_POLICY=foo_policy;
CREATE OR REPLACE NETWORK_POLICY bar_policy
ALLOWED_IP_LIST = ('3.3.3.0/24')
BLOCKED_IP_LIST = ('3.3.3.10')
COMMENT = 'user level policy';
ALTER USER user1 SET NETWORK_POLICY=BAR_POLICY;
```

Afterwards, user1 attempts to log in to Snowflake from IP address 3.3.3.10.
Will the login be successful?

- A. Yes, because 3.3.3.10 is found in the ALLOWED_IP_LIST of bar_policy.
- B. No, because 3.3.3.10 is found in the BLOCKED_IP_LIST of bar_policy.
- C. No, because 3.3.3.10 is not found in the ALLOWED_IP_LIST of foo_policy.
- D. Yes, because 3.3.3.10 is found in the ALLOWED_IP_LIST of foo_policy.

Answer: B

Explanation:

Although 3.3.3.10 is in the ALLOWED_IP_LIST, it is also explicitly listed in the BLOCKED_IP_LIST of the user-level policy (bar_policy). Blocked IPs always take precedence over allowed IPs in Snowflake network policies, so the login attempt will fail.

NEW QUESTION # 52

What session parameter can be used to test the integrity of secure views based on the account that is accessing that view?

- A. SIMULATED DATA SHARING CONSUMER
- B. TEST ACCOUNT ID
- C. MIMIC CONSUMER ACCOUNT
- D. PRODUCER TEST ACCT

Answer: C

Explanation:

The session parameter MIMIC_CONSUMER_ACCOUNT allows a data provider to test how secure views will appear to a specific consumer account. This ensures the integrity and correctness of secure views before they are shared.
