NEW QUESTION #28

A company is planning to adopt Media Cloud and has requirements around the relationship between clients and their advertising agencies, where they want to capture the role of each agency so they can identify clearly what is the Agency of Record. They also have requirements to map contacts within the agencies.

How should the Media Cloud data model be used to represent these relationships?

- A. Advertisers and agencies should be created as Accounts, and a custom lookup field should be created to represent the client/agency relationship. Contacts should be created under the Accounts.
- B. Advertisers and agencies should be created as Accounts, with agencies listed as child Accounts to the client Accounts, with Contacts related to those.
- C. Advertisers should be created as Accounts, and agencies should be represented by a custom field added to the Contact object. Contacts should then be assigned to the Accounts.
- D. Advertisers and agencies should be created as Accounts and contacts as Contacts, and the Party Model should be adopted to define the relationships between them.

Answer: D

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation From Exact Extract:

The Party Model in Media Cloud is designed to represent complex relationships between entities such as Advertisers and Agencies. Both are Accounts, and relationships between them (including roles like Agency of Record) are defined via the Party Model, which also supports mapping Contacts within those Accounts. This model provides flexibility and best practice for relationship management over custom lookups or hierarchical Account structures.
