Salesforce Certified MuleSoft Catalyst Consultant Sample Questions (Q88-Q93):

NEW QUESTION # 88

An organization is adopting a Catalyst approach to transforming its enterprise from siloed retail channels to an omnichannel retail enterprise. How should the Catalyst approach differ from other delivery approaches that the organization has used in the past?

- A. The Catalyst approach will be a long-term project that delivers all necessary omnichannel capabilities after all requirements are gathered and analyzed, solutions are designed and implemented, and all new capabilities are tested
- B. The Catalyst approach should use external development teams so that internal IT teams can focus on preparing to support the deployment and ongoing maintenance of the new omnichannel enterprise
- C. The Catalyst approach will have a defined ending so that the entire organization will know when all capabilities will be delivered
- D. The Catalyst approach will not be a "one and done" project; it will be an ongoing effort over time with multiple projects, each with its own set of objectives that collectively drive towards delivering all capabilities of an omnichannel retail enterprise

Answer: D

NEW QUESTION # 89

Which statement is true when keeping the Center for Enablement (C4E) sustainable and the teams engaged?

- A. The C4E should ensure at least one core team member is included in each delivery team
- B. The C4E team's time should be fully allocated to the C4E to ensure focused efforts
- C. The C4E team should publish at least one asset every month to stay relevant
- D. The C4E team should continue to solicit and incorporate feedback from asset users

Answer: D

NEW QUESTION # 90

A company is kicking off a large multi-year transformation program. In a presentation to the company's project manager, an architect is describing the importance of considering long-term objectives, adopting a product mindset, and building a reusable platform with foundational capabilities.

The project manager quickly responds that while that approach sounds great, it is a major culture shift and they have only been asked to deliver this first project and do not have budget for such things.

How should the architect respond to this challenge?

- A. Accept that it is a culture shift, but highlight that it is one of the core principles of Catalyst which is proven to deliver the right results and therefore must be adopted
- B. Accept that this is a step too far for the organization and focus on the successful delivery of the first project and revisit at a later stage
- C. Disagree that this is a major culture shift for the organization and escalate to the program manager
- D. Highlight that the upfront effort of delivering a reusable platform with foundational capabilities while developing this project can be low and will bring significant benefit and savings to the overall transformation program

Answer: D

NEW QUESTION # 91

What does a Center for Enablement (C4E) provide to enable project delivery teams?

- Answer: B

What is a key difference between a goal and an objective while defining business outcomes using the Catalyst approach?

- Answer: B
