CWNP Certified Wireless IoT Solutions Administrator(2025 Edition) Sample Questions (Q19-Q24):

NEW QUESTION # 19

You have implemented a wireless mesh network. All mesh nodes are properly configured for participation in the same mesh network. Several of the mesh nodes are unable to connect to other mesh nodes. What action may provide a solution to this problem?

- A. Move the faulty mesh nodes to provide for better signal strength
- B. Place the faulty mesh nodes in their own mesh network
- C. Change the output power settings only on the faulty mesh nodes
- D. Change the security settings on the faulty mesh nodes

Answer: A

Explanation:

* Mesh Connectivity Depends on Signal: Mesh nodes relay data for each other. Weak signal strength between nodes can disrupt connectivity throughout the network.

* Troubleshooting Signal Issues: Physically relocating affected nodes can improve their ability to form stable connections with other nodes in the mesh.

* Why Other Options May Not Help:

* Separate Mesh: Splits the network, not solving the root connectivity issue

* Output Power: May help marginally, but significant improvement is typically achieved through repositioning.

* Security Settings: Unlikely to cause connectivity issues between properly configured nodes in the same mesh.

NEW QUESTION # 20

What kind of PoE device can be used to power a non-PoE connected object assuming PoE power is provided on the Ethernet cable?

- A. PoE coupler
- B. PoE endspan switch
- C. PoE splitter
- D. PoE midspan injector

Answer: C

Explanation:

PoE Splitter: A PoE splitter separates power and data from a PoE-enabled Ethernet cable, allowing the powering of non-PoE devices.

NEW QUESTION # 21

What is an important acceptance agreement to achieve in the final customer meeting for a wireless IoT deployment?

- A. Stakeholder acceptance
- B. Scope definition
- C. Support for wearable IoT solutions
- D. Power supply provisioning

Answer: A

Explanation:

* Successful Deployment Depends on Buy-In: A final customer meeting signifies the handover phase.

Achieving stakeholder agreement ensures everyone impacted by the solution has a voice and feels their concerns are addressed.

* Sign-Off and Formal Acceptance: Stakeholders often need to formally "sign-off" on a project's completion, indicating satisfaction and readiness for operational use.

* Other Options: While Important, Not the Primary Goal:

* Scope definition typically happens much earlier

* Solutions may or may not include wearables

* Power supply should already be planned

References:

Project Management Methodologies: Emphasis on stakeholder involvement & acceptance criteria.

ITIL (Change Management): Materials on getting approval before a system goes live.

NEW QUESTION # 22

What is the benefit of using SINR as opposed to SNR to reference signal quality at a receiver?

- A. SNR excludes the noise floor, which skews the results
- B. SINR includes interference as well as the noise floor
- C. SNR includes interference measurements that skew the results
- D. SINR excludes interference and only measures the noise floor

Answer: B

Explanation:

SINR vs. SNR:

SNR (Signal-to-Noise Ratio): Measures the power of the desired signal relative to background noise.

SINR (Signal-to-Interference-plus-Noise Ratio): Considers both background noise and interference from other signals operating on the same frequency.

Practical Importance: SINR is a more realistic indicator of real-world signal quality in wireless environments where interference is a significant factor.

NEW QUESTION # 23

What is the typical range of a wireless body area network (WBAN)?

- A. 10 square meters
- B. 10 centimeters
- C. 10 meters
- D. 1-2 meters

Answer: D

Explanation:

* WBAN Range: Wireless Body Area Networks (WBANs) specialize in short-range communication around the human body.

Typical ranges fall within 1-2 meters.

* Purpose: This range is designed to:

* Connect sensors monitoring health metrics.

* Transmit data to a central coordinator device (e.g., smartphone).

* Minimize interference potential with other wireless networks.
