問題 #25

Which is part of the 'focus on value' guiding principle?

- A. Identifying activities that can be achieved in smaller iterations
- B. Understanding what services help the service consumer
- C. Assessing services to identify parts that can be reused
- D. Reducing the number of steps in the customer experience

答案: B

問題 #26

Which TWO of the following statements are MOST associated with the 'optimize and automate' guiding principle?

1. It is important to assess which method of communication is appropriate for each type of stakeholder.
2. Complex systems should be designed with an understanding of how the components' parts are related.
3. Organizations should consider whether technology could improve the efficiency of manual processes.
4. It is important to understand the organization's objectives when assessing the impact of potential improvements.

- A. 2 and 3
- B. 1 and 2
- C. 3 and 4
- D. 1 and 4

答案: C

解題說明:

Explanation

You need to use all of your resources as effectively and efficiently as you can. This means that you should automate wherever you can, and use people only for tasks that can't be automated. It also means that you need to think carefully about what you can automate and about the circumstances where only a person will do; and about simplifying those processes you do decide to automate to eliminate wasteful or inefficient steps.

You should always optimize the work BEFORE you automate it, as automating something that is inefficient or ineffective may just result in you doing the wrong thing faster!

問題 #27

Which is the MOST LIKELY way of resolving major incidents?

- A. A support team following detailed procedures for investigating the incident
- B. The service desk identifying the cause and a resolution
- C. Users establishing a resolution using self-help
- D. A temporary team working together to identify a resolution

解題說明:

The incident management practice aims to minimize the negative impact of incidents by restoring normal service operation as quickly as possible<sup>1</sup>. A major incident is an incident that has a significant impact or urgency for the business and requires a high level of coordination and resources to resolve<sup>2</sup>. The most likely way of resolving major incidents is by forming a temporary team working together to identify a resolution, such as a major incident team or a swarming team<sup>3</sup>. The other statements are not true because: Users establishing a resolution using self-help: Self-help is an option for users to resolve their own incidents with minimal or no assistance from the service provider, but it is not suitable for major incidents that require urgent and expert attention<sup>3</sup>. The service desk identifying the cause and a resolution: The service desk is responsible for logging, categorizing, prioritizing, and escalating incidents, but it may not have the skills or authority to identify the cause and a resolution for major incidents that involve multiple teams or suppliers<sup>3</sup>.

A support team following detailed procedures for investigating the incident: A support team may follow detailed procedures for investigating the incident, but it may not be able to resolve major incidents that require cross-functional collaboration or escalation<sup>3</sup>. - B. Outcomes provide assurance to stakeholders regarding the performance of a service
- C. The level of expenses regarding a technology for a service is defined by an outcome
- D. The delivery of products to a stakeholder is enabled by outcomes

答案： A

解題說明：

An outcome is a result for a stakeholder enabled by one or more outputs<sup>1</sup>. Outputs are tangible or intangible deliverables of an activity<sup>1</sup>. For example, a service provider may produce a report (output) that helps a customer make a decision (outcome)<sup>2</sup>.
