APMG-International Agile Project Management (AgilePM) Practitioner Exam Sample Questions (Q54-Q59):

NEW QUESTION # 54

The Solution Development Team are progressing through the first Structured Timebox. What should the Project Manager do to lead the team at this time?

- A. The Project Manager should do nothing during a Timebox.
- B. Update the Team Board with a summary of team progress and the current status of work.
- C. Attend the Daily Stand-up and discuss any problems at the end.
- D. Maintain a tight control on progress, recording all discussions and making all decisions.

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 55

Which statement should be recorded under the High-level change approach heading?

- A. All four Change Initiative elements will be required to produce a monthly formal report for the CEO.
- B. The senior management will be asked to share examples of other companies undertaking, and successfully overcoming, similar challenges.
- C. Existing UniCo staff only have skills in providing the installation of large-scale computer systems.
- D. Fast-track training of the Sales staff means taking a member of staff away from the sales operational work.

Answer: B

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Step-by-Step Explanation:

When identifying a statement under the High-level change approach heading, it is essential to focus on strategies or methods that outline how the organization plans to execute the change initiative.

1. Key Elements of a "High-Level Change Approach":

* A high-level change approach provides a broad overview of how the organization intends to implement and guide the change.

* It typically involves strategic actions, leadership initiatives, and examples of how similar challenges have been overcome, serving as guiding principles for the change initiative.

2. Option Analysis:

- * Option A: Existing UniCo staff only have skills in providing the installation of large-scale computer systems.
- * This statement identifies a current limitation in staff capability. While it is relevant to the context of the change, it does not describe an approach or methodology for driving the change.
- * Eliminate.
- * Option B: Fast-track training of the Sales staff means taking a member of staff away from the sales operational work.
- * This statement highlights a logistical issue related to training but does not reflect an overarching change approach. It focuses on operational impact rather than the strategic method of driving change.
- * Eliminate.
- * Option C: The senior management will be asked to share examples of other companies undertaking, and successfully overcoming, similar challenges.
- * This statement describes a strategic element of the change approach. Leveraging examples from similar challenges provides a learning framework and aligns with the Agile principle of "learning from experience." It represents a high-level strategy to guide the change process.
- * Correct Answer.
- * Option D: All four Change Initiative elements will be required to produce a monthly formal report for the CEO.
- * This statement outlines a reporting requirement rather than a strategic or high-level approach.
- While reporting is a necessary part of governance, it does not describe a method for driving change.
- * Eliminate.
- 3. Relevance in UniCo's Scenario:
 - * Sharing examples of other companies' successes aligns with the need for strategic leadership and provides inspiration for overcoming challenges.
 - * In UniCo's case, senior management can use these examples to drive cultural acceptance of change and adapt proven strategies to their specific context.
- 4. Agile Practitioner Documentation References:
 - * Leadership in Change Management: Agile principles emphasize the role of leadership in providing strategic guidance and leveraging external examples to inform decisions.
 - * Continuous Learning: The Agile approach encourages learning from previous experiences and external examples to refine strategies for successful change implementation.

NEW QUESTION # 56

The Applications Manager, who is already very busy, is proposed as a Change Agent.

Which action by the Change Manager is MOST likely to make this department's change agent role effective?

- A. Provide an anonymous complaints system for use if the team cannot raise concerns directly.
- B. Train the Application Manager in time management techniques and approaches.
- C. Appoint a junior team member as change agent with the Applications Manager as support 'buddy.'
- D. Publish the timetable of the Operational delivery process workstream objectives to staff.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Step-by-Step Explanation

The Applications Manager is already heavily engaged in other responsibilities, which makes it challenging for them to take on additional duties as a change agent. To make their role effective without overburdening them, it is important to redistribute tasks or provide support to alleviate their workload.

1. Why B (Appoint a Junior Team Member with Support) is Correct

- * Delegation with Oversight: Appointing a junior team member as a change agent allows the Applications Manager to provide strategic guidance while the junior team member handles operational-level responsibilities.
 - * Efficient Use of Time: This approach ensures the Applications Manager's expertise is still leveraged without compromising their ability to fulfill other critical responsibilities.
 - * Encourages Team Development: By empowering a junior team member, the department builds capacity and fosters a culture of shared responsibility.
 - * Fits Agile Principles: Agile encourages collaboration and distributed leadership, which aligns with assigning a junior member with oversight from the Applications Manager.
2. Analysis of Incorrect Options
- * Option A (Anonymous Complaints System):
 - * While useful for surfacing concerns, this does not address the Applications Manager's workload or their ability to be effective in the change agent role.
 - * Eliminate.
 - * Option C (Train in Time Management):

* Time management training is not a practical solution in this context, as it does not reduce the workload or provide additional resources for the Applications Manager.

* Eliminate.

* Option D (Publish Timetable):

* Publishing a timetable may clarify objectives for the team but does not directly address the Applications Manager's capacity or ability to fulfill the role.

* Eliminate.

3. Practical Implications of Selecting Option B

* Improves Effectiveness: By providing a support structure (a junior team member), the department ensures that change-related tasks are handled without compromising other responsibilities.

* Promotes Collaboration: This solution emphasizes teamwork and accountability, which is critical in change initiatives.
